

We also mourn the death of Diane Seldon Hill of Denver, CO, on July 30, 2024. A psychology major, Diane earned her MA and doctorate at the University of Minnesota, Saint-Paul, and practiced for more than 40 years as an educator, clinician, organizational consultant and clinical psychologist. Diane worked first as an instructor/counselor in the U of MN system, then as counselor at the Emma Willard School, Director of Counseling at Colorado College, Field Supervisor at the U of Denver, Assistant Clinical Professor in the U of CO system and then as a self-employed clinical psychologist beginning in 1979. Diane was active for MHC as Nom Com Member, class VP, Reunion Chair, Lead Gift Committee member and President of the MHC Club of CO. Diane received the Margaret Phipps Award from the Colorado Symphony and was listed in the Who's Who of American Women in 1991. Her husband and business partner Kevin Somerville defines Diane by her adventurous spirit and intellectual curiosity. Diane is also mourned by daughter Anna Hill, son Jason Hill, step-daughter Nora Baldwin and six grandchildren.
