Hello!

My name is Eric Jorgensen, a second-generation painting perfectionist. I currently work alone, but I have reached a point where the workload is more than I can personally handle. I am looking to grow my operations. This sheet is a brief overview of my needs, and you can expect your responsibilities to expand beyond the scope of this job posting.

Compensation

- $15 – $19 per hour
- Overtime Pay may be possible

Expectations

- No prior experience necessary
- Eagerness to learn and adapt because your personal circumstances demand you to
- Motivated to learn a trade that will empower you with a new and practical skill

Responsibilities

- Tolerate high or low environment temperatures
- Tolerate physically challenging labor conditions
- Can operate on ladders reaching upwards of 30ft in height
- Not common, but up to 25% of the day can be spent traveling within the Metropolitan area of Ada County
- Purchase and transport paint, supplies, or equipment
- Jobsite setup and end of day cleanup
- Jobsite assistance to keep workflow consistent
- Use your creativity and problem-solving skills to come up with ideas that will increase workflow efficiency

Requirements

- Work vehicle that can transport equipment
- Must be in satisfactory physical condition to be assessed and determined by company
- Must be willing to spend weeks at a time outside city limits

Benefits

- Learn the proper way to paint from a perfectionist
- Obtain transferrable skills that are desirable in construction
