Press Release

October 5, 2020

Following a burglary investigation by the Osage Police Department, multiple felony charges were filed on two Osage residents.

Zebulon Rosendahl, 26 years old and Amanda Smith, 25 years old were both charged with Burglary 2nd Degree-Class C Felony and 3 counts of Burglary 3rd Degree - Class D Felonies. Both subjects are being held at the Mitchell County Jail. This is an ongoing investigation and more charges are expected.

The Osage Police Department were assisted in this investigation by Osage Residents, the Mitchell County Sheriff's Office and the Mason City Police Department.

Numerous items have been seized from these subjects and we encourage home owners to check their garages and vehicles for any missing property and call the Osage Police Department with any questions 641-732-3777. We further encourage all residents to keep diligent in locking their homes, garages and vehicles and to report any suspicious activity.

All defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
