

For immediate publication

Randy Gilliam Joins Leadership Logic Consulting Board

The owner of Gilliam Architecture is an industry veteran.

Nov. 1, 2019 (GREER, SC) Randy Gilliam, RA, CEO, Gilliam Architecture, has joined the Leadership Logic Consulting Board as Chairman, Campus & Facilities Development. Mr. Gilliam has more than 20 years of experience in the industry, beginning in 1997 as Project Manager and Designer for Barduson Architectural Group to 2009 when he formed Gilliam Architecture based in Phoenix. Mr. Gilliam's will guide Leadership Logic Consulting's long-term facility projects.

"We are thrilled that Randy has joined our team," said Dr. Tim Oergel, Chairman and CEO of Leadership Logic Consulting. "Under his stewardship, we will move forward on achieving our goal of a sustainable and permanent future."

"I am excited to be a part of the Leadership Logic Consulting Board," said Mr. Gilliam. "I look forward to contributing to the organization's mission."

Leadership Logic Consulting offers fully-customized training programs designed to produce highly skilled aspiring leaders and executives. The curriculum is accredited by the guideline authority of the Advancing Academia Commission on Higher Education AACHE, and is qualified by the American Advanced Technology & Cybersecurity University as transferable college credit. These special programs are offered to transitioning Military Veterans and Data Center Professionals in conference-styled workshops, small study groups, or one-on-one sessions. Leadership Logic Consulting is an AACHE recognized Certified Teaching Alliance of AATC University.

For more information contact:

Caroline Fritz

Chief Marketing Officer

Cfritz@jforce-solutions.us