MEET 2 OF OUR ELITE PROFESSIONALS

Torrance Potts is a 22-year-old dancer, choreographer, and all-around movement enthusiast from Utah County. She grew up training at The Pointe Academy and later at Mather Dance Studio in Orange County, diving deep into ballet, contemporary, jazz, tap, and musical theatre. After high school, she kicked off her professional journey with Junction Dance Co and took a break to serve an LDS mission. Lately, she's been leveling up her skills with street styles like New Jack, Hip Hop, House, and Breaking. Torrance is currently a company member with Junction Dance Co in Salt Lake City and proudly directs at her home studio, The Pointe Academy.

Mckinley Heimuli is an internationally recognized choreographer and performer known for bold, story-driven work and elite-level leadership. A former 5-year member and 4-time captain of the 26-time National Champion BYU Cougarettes, she helped lead the team to 7 national titles and 2 world championships. Trained in viola and violin, Mckinley brings exceptional musicality and intentional care to every dancer she works with. She has trained internationally, previously with Cameron Lee in Los Angeles, and is currently training with Aura Dance Company. Train with Mckinley and experience movement that challenges you, inspires you, and brings out your best as a dancer, while fostering a supportive class community.

Don't miss your chance to be part of Luxx Nationals where talent meets opportunity. With exciting cash prizes, support from amazing local businesses, exclusive gifts, and a stage to truly shine, this is your moment to push your limits and celebrate everything you've worked for. We can't wait to see you excel and make unforgettable memories with us! Let's Dance!
