Storytelling 01

INDIAN NATIONAL ANIMAL & BIRD

in the same frame

Jim Corbett National Park | 15th December 2013 | 12:20 pm to 12:25 pm

"While driving through the narrow passages in the Jim Corbett National Park, we saw a couple of peacock in distance. They were chirping and seemed to be having a good time.

We stopped our Jeep a couple of hundred yards away from them to enjoy their quaver without disturbing or scaring them away.

Within a few minutes we noticed the tough guy emerge through the woods onto the driveway.

He didn't seem to have noticed us. He just sat there, probably enjoying the singing and chanting of the birds just like us.

As a few minutes passed our Jeep driver started the engine to retreat the Jeep towards the exit, stirring us as well as the tiger from our thoughts.

We were thrilled to see that the tiger simply stood and strolled back into the woods.

He did not hurt the birds or us even when we were all in such close capturing distance.

This is a beautiful capture of our National Bird and National Animal in the same frame."

Respect WILDLIFE. Cherish NATURE.

BAGLARTS PHOTOGRAPHY +91-9729728111 charchitbagla87@gmail.com

Storytelling 02

A RELAXING MORNING BATH FOR MR. T24

Ranthambhore National Park | 12th October 2013 | 08:45 am to 09:11 am

My fellow photographers and I had been on the safari jeep in the Ranthambore National Park trying to locate Mr. T 24.

At precisely 0900 hours, we spotted him in the jungle, trotting towards the pond. Slowly he slid himself into the cool calming water of the pond.

We enjoyed watching such a powerful yet enticing animal, the "National Animal" of our country, from our end, as much as he enjoyed staring at us from his.

He did not roar at us or gave any attention to our presence.

After exactly nine minutes he emerged out of the water, presumably more relaxed and 'clean' and walked away from us and the pond.

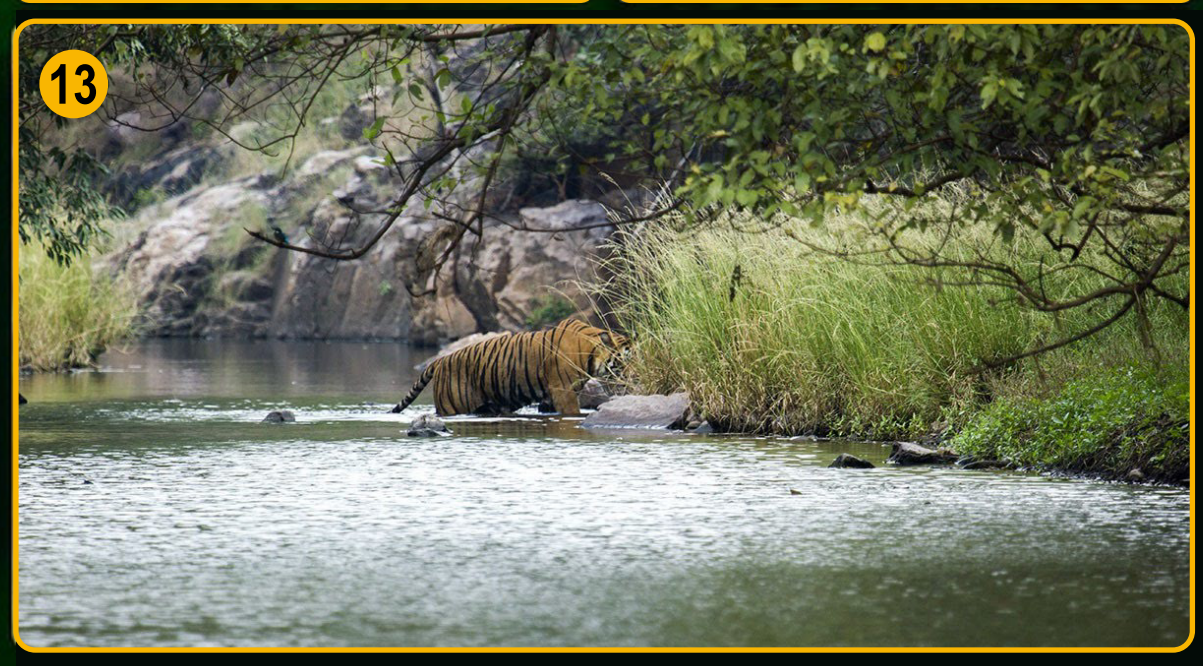

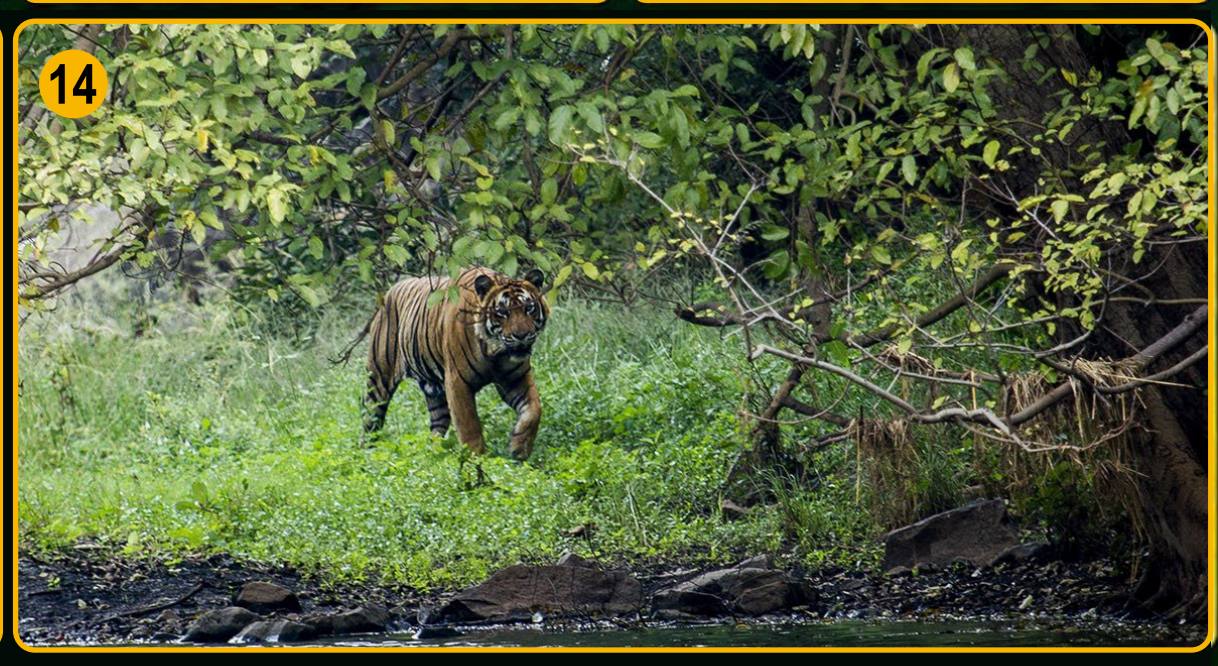

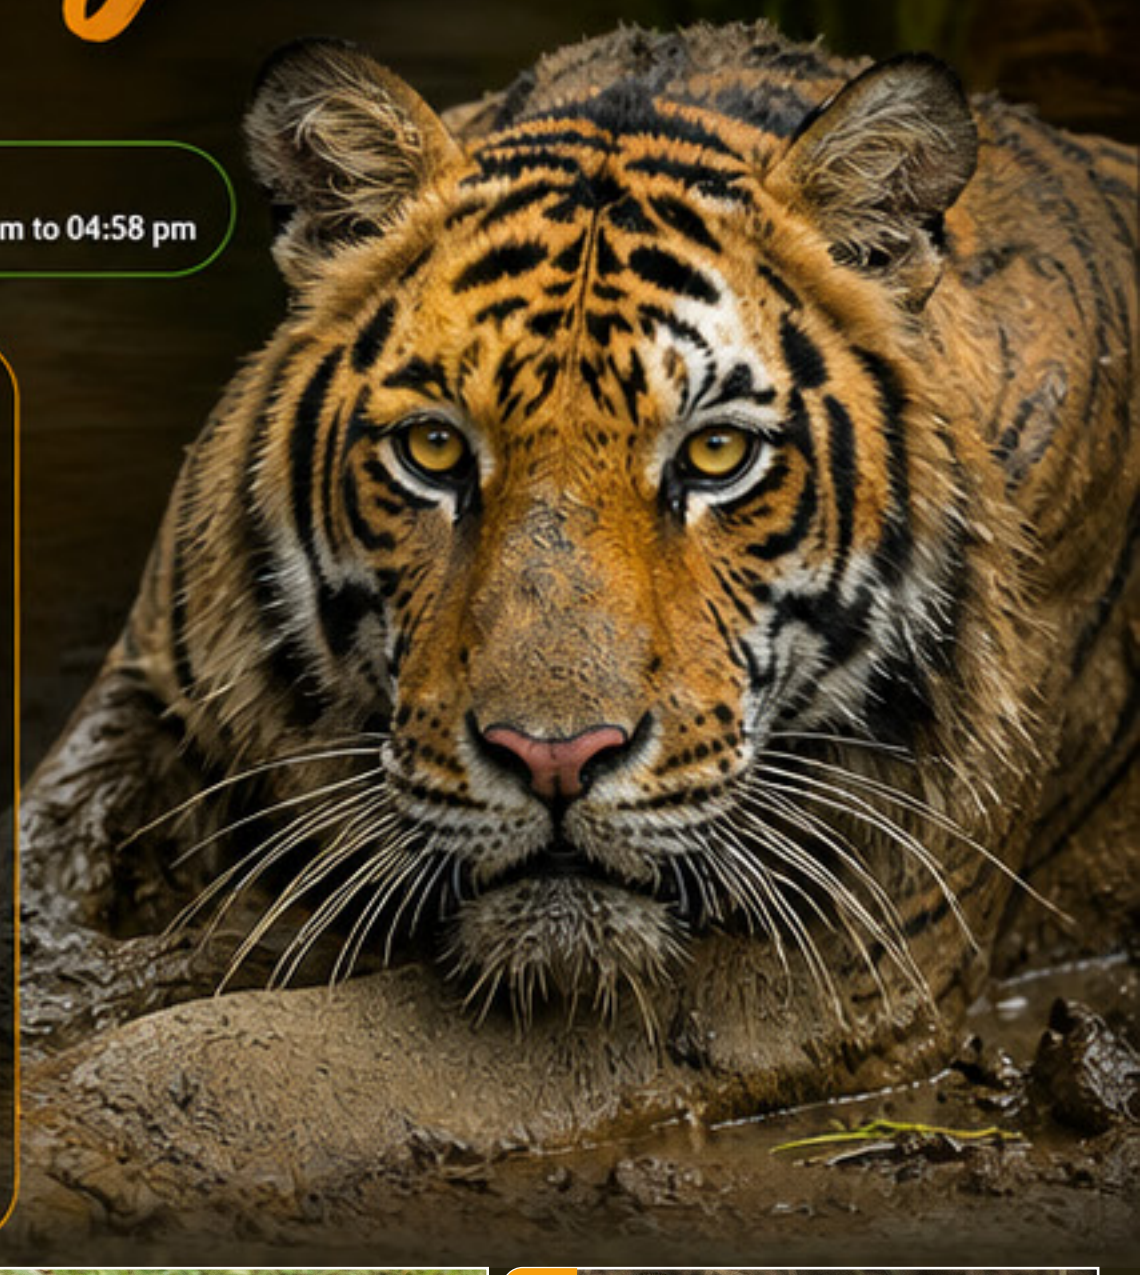

Storytelling 03

Name SULTAN

Place Ranthambhore National Park

Date 13th October 2013

Time 04:30 pm to 04:58 pm

"In the afternoon, during our safari tour, we saw this mighty tiger spread in one of the pits near the roadside, probably enjoying the cool mud in the warm October weather.

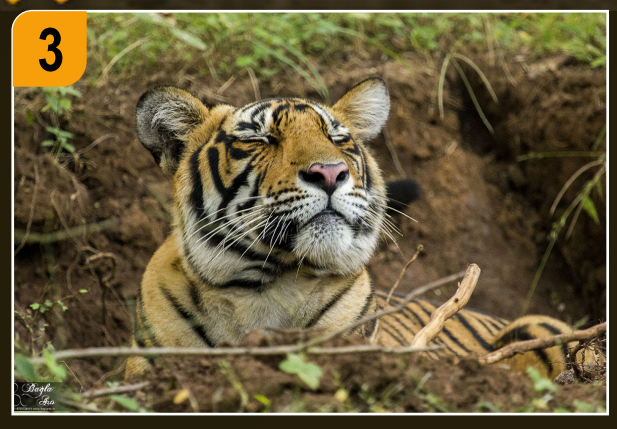

He saw us as we approached this little territory, but he knew we are smart enough to know our limits. We were parked at some distance from this beautiful wild mammal watching him as he stretched and relaxed in mud.

We exchanged some looks during the 30 minutes encounter but neither of us said anything to each other. It is too fascinating to see him like He was King of the Jungle so up close.

Eventually he got bored of us staring at him, and stood up and trotted away from us."

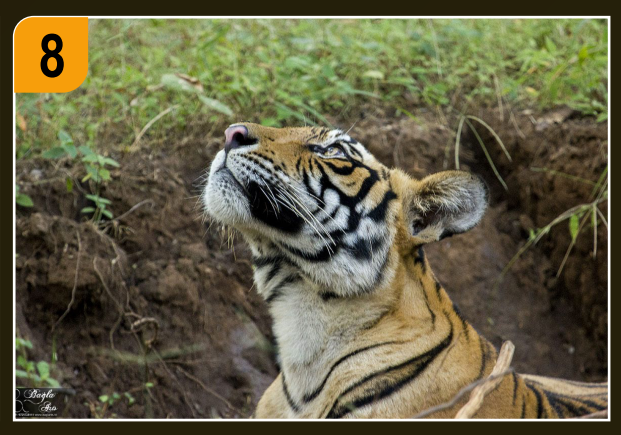

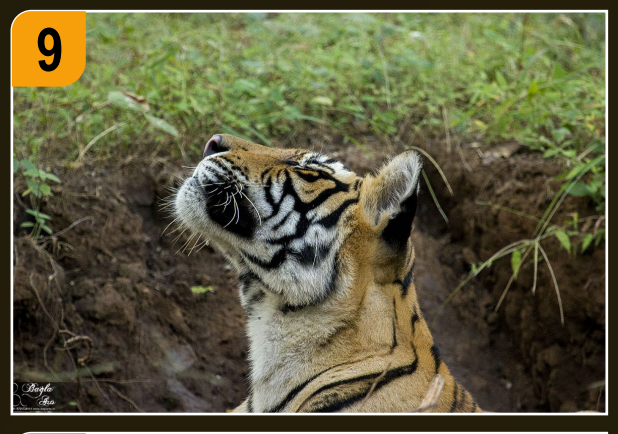

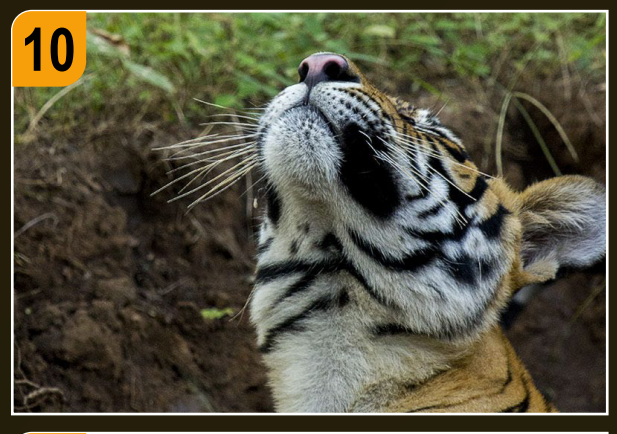

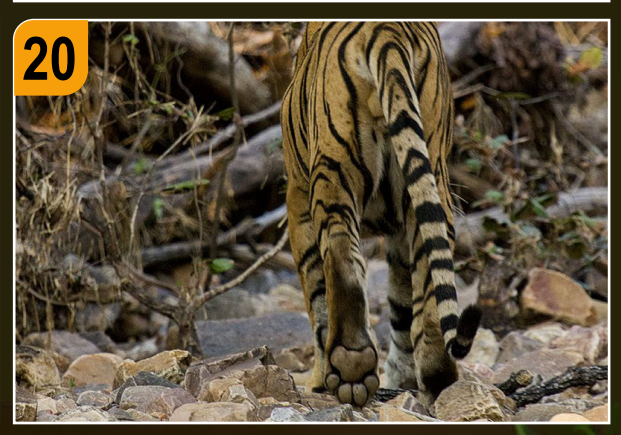

"A silent encounter. Two souls. One wild memory."

Storytelling 04

A MOMENT OF LOVE ♡ in the Wild ♡

BIRD SPECIES
Rose Ringed Parakeet (Male & Female)

PLACE
On the way to Jhajjar, Haryana, India

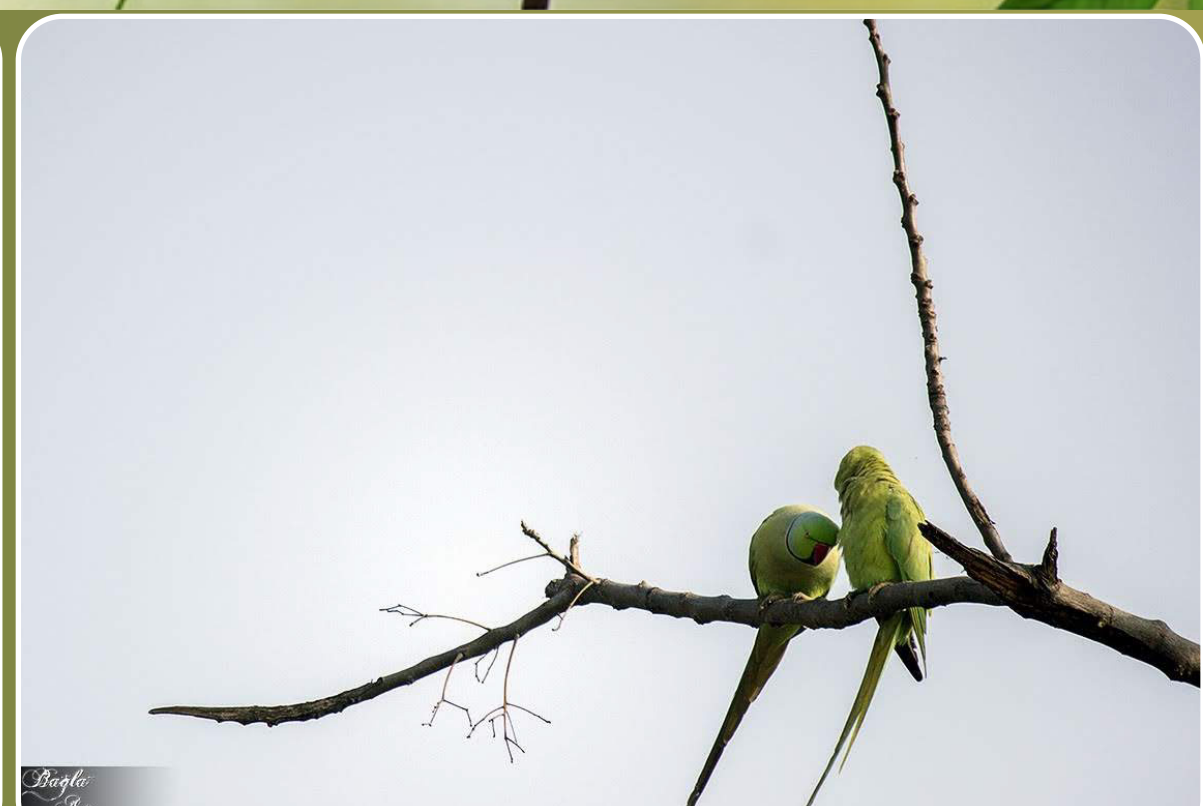

DATE
27th February 2014

TIME
09:52 am to 09:55 am

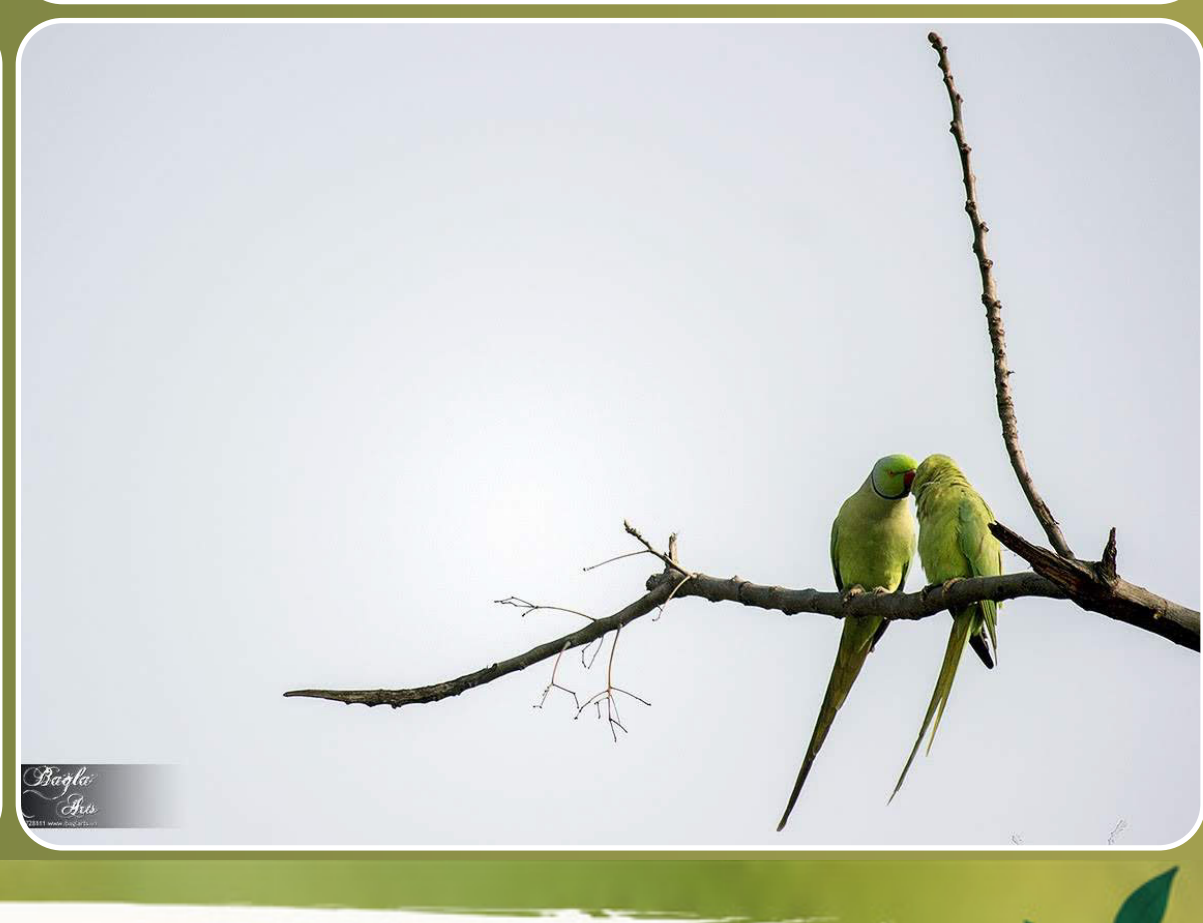

"At around 09:45, while my dad and I were waiting for the train at a railway crossing, we spotted this lovely parakeet couple. They were totally enchanted into each other's love.

It was tantalizing to see such affection and fondness among birds."

"Love knows no boundaries, not even in the wild."

Storytelling 05
WINGS OF CHANGE,
JOURNEYS OF HOPE
Possibly migratory birds getting ready for the seasonal changes in India!
PLACE
Ranthambhore National Park
DATE
13th October 2013
TIME
06:22 pm
MOMENT
Nature in Transition
“Every flight is a promise of change, every sky a path to new beginnings.”

BAGLARTS PHOTOGRAPHY
+91-9729728311
charchitbagla87@gmail.com

Storytelling 06

WINGS OF GRATITUDE, MORNINGS OF KINDNESS

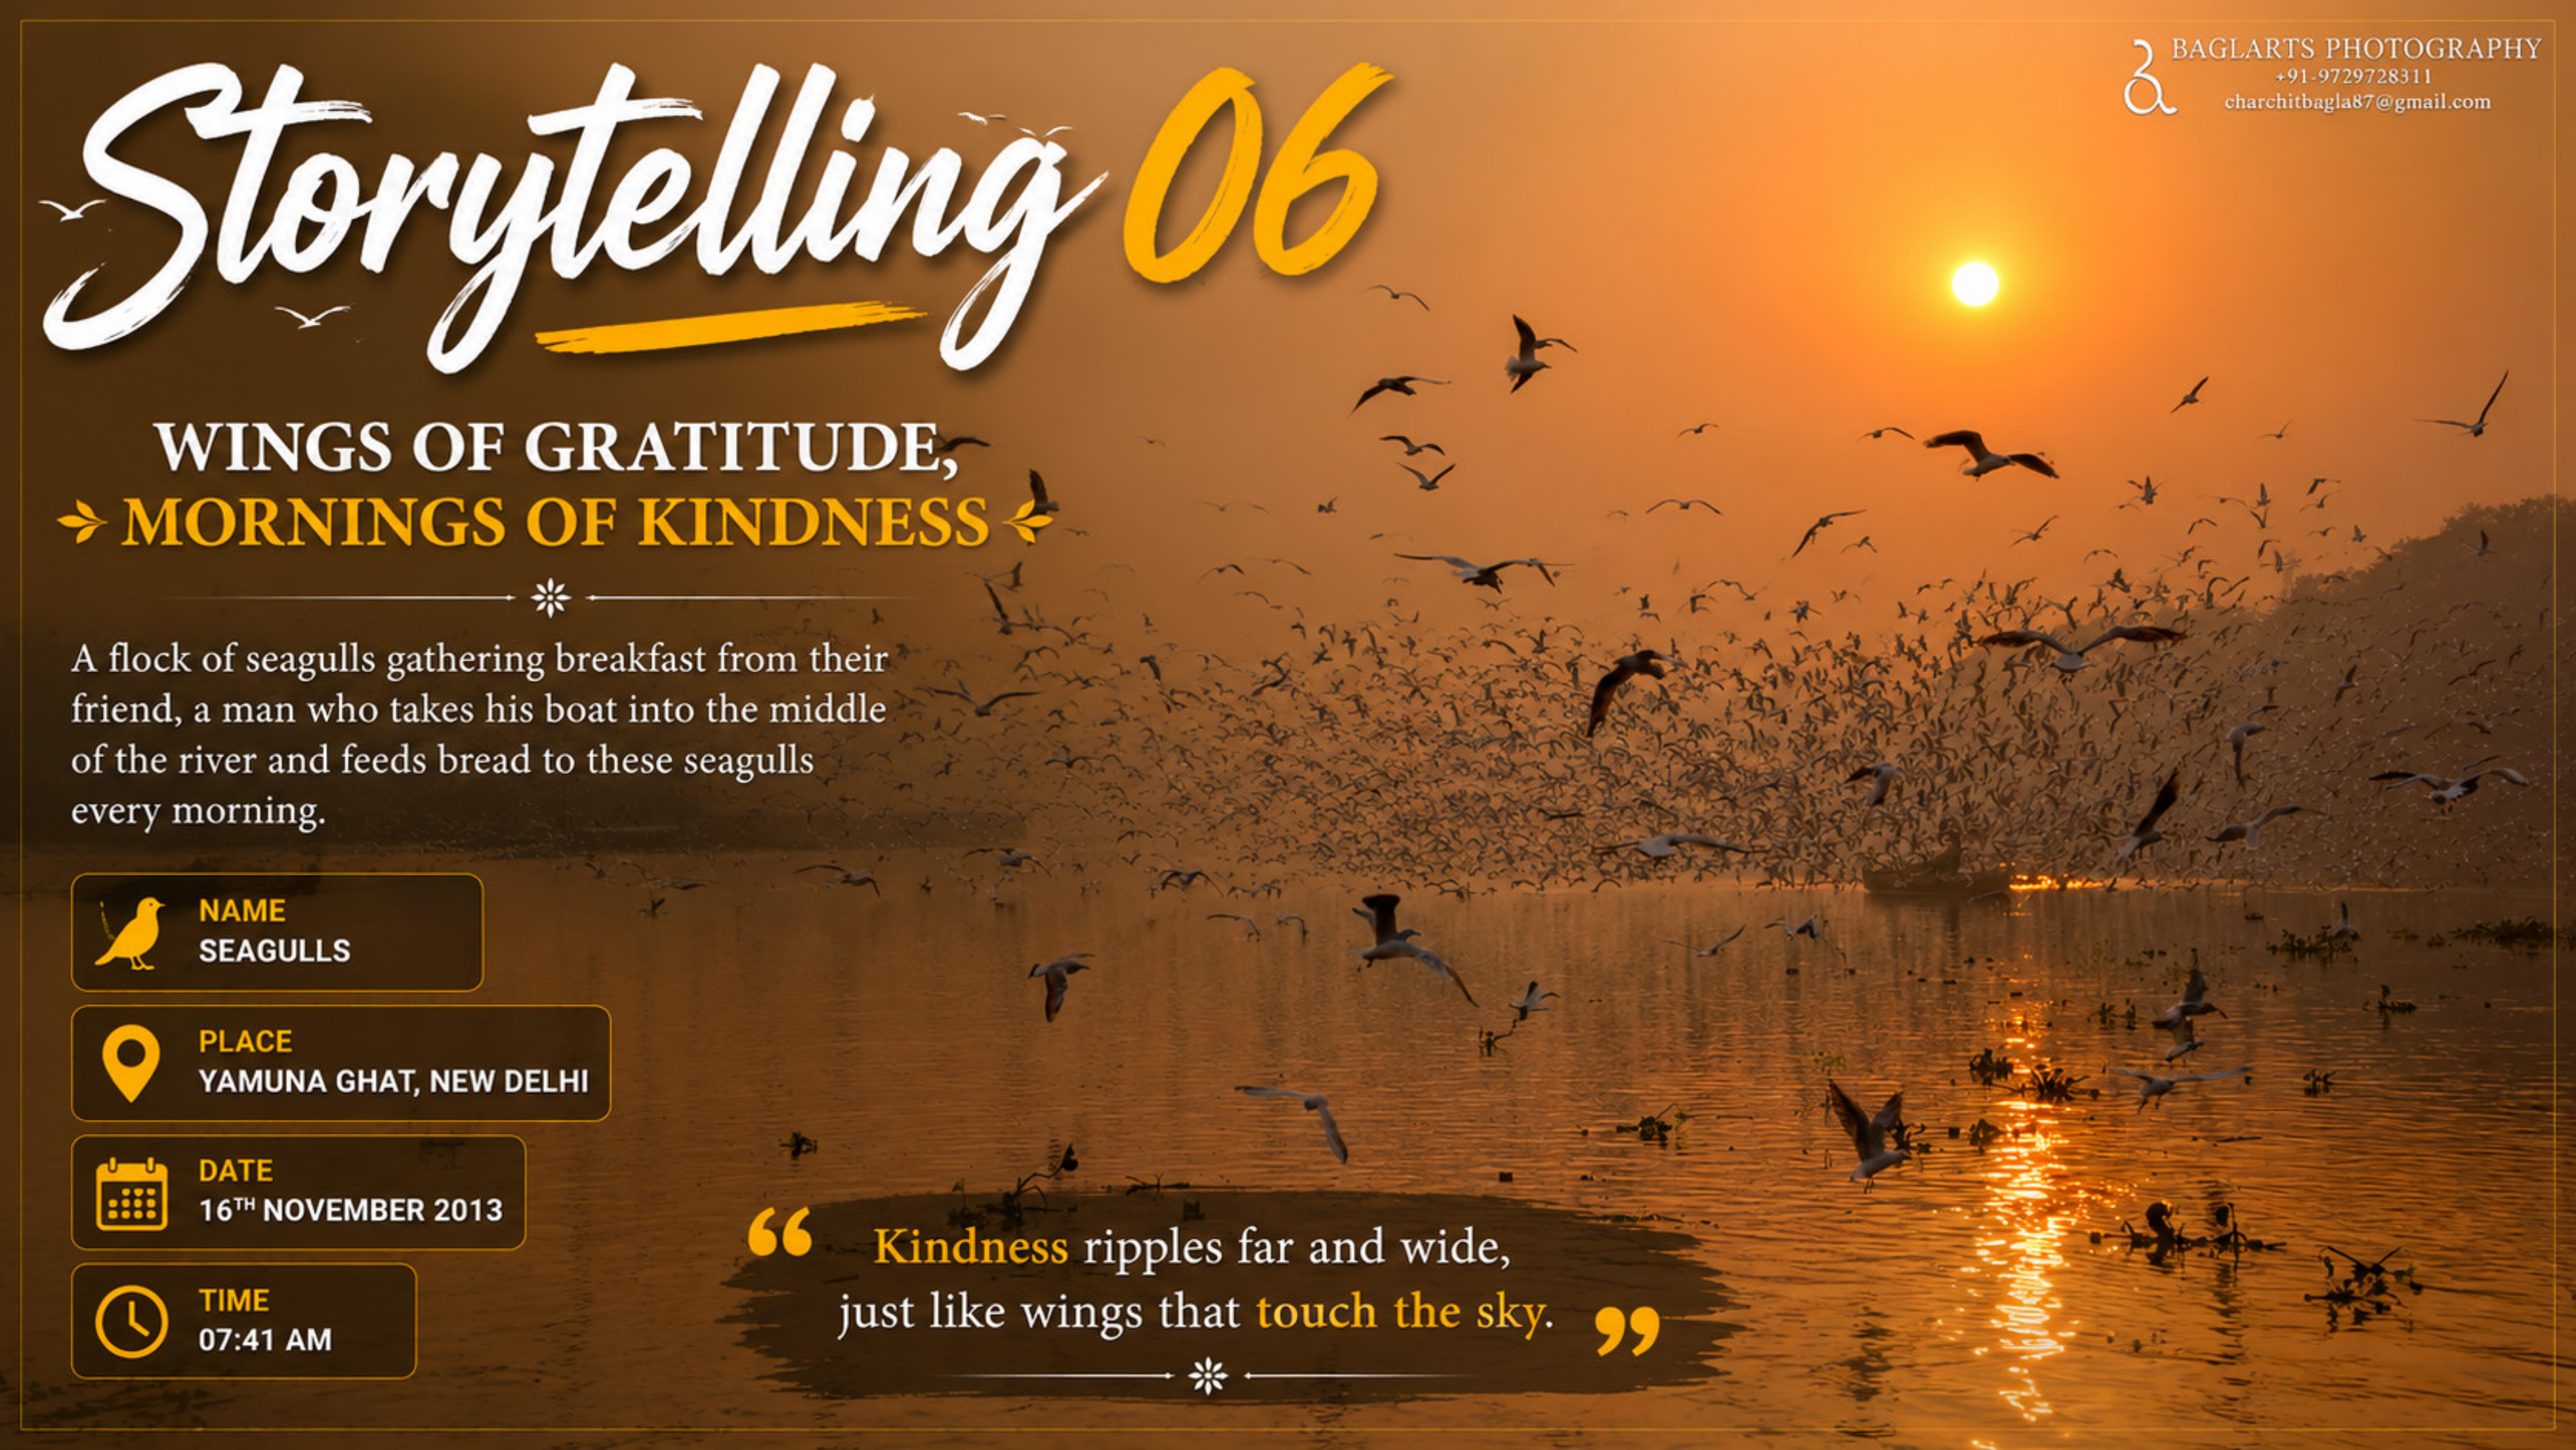

A flock of seagulls gathering breakfast from their friend, a man who takes his boat into the middle of the river and feeds bread to these seagulls every morning.

NAME
SEAGULLS

PLACE
YAMUNA GHAT, NEW DELHI

DATE
16TH NOVEMBER 2013

TIME
07:41 AM

"Kindness ripples far and wide, just like wings that touch the sky."

BAGLARTS PHOTOGRAPHY
+91-9729728311
charchitbagla87@gmail.com

Storytelling 07

WILD BONDS, PRECIOUS MOMENTS

HOW MANY OTTERS DO YOU SEE?

NAME
OTTERS

PLACE
JIM CORBETT
NATIONAL PARK

DATE
13TH DECEMBER 2013

TIME
09:20 AM

"In the gentle flow of nature, family is our first adventure."