Just laid down at 3:30 and forgot to turn off my phone alarm for weekday work schedule. Woke me up at 4:15 and found that Q has some new posts. First one is intriguing and the "e" is missing from "socities". Next 2 drops appear to be corrections but the "-" is a head-scratcher.

"Rest in peace Mr. President (JFK), through your wisdom and strength, since your tragic death, Patriots have planned, installed, and by the grace of God, activated, the beam of LIGHT. We will forever remember your sacrifice. May you look down from above and continue to guide us as we ring the bell of FREEDOM and destroy those who wish to sacrifice our children, our way of life, and our world. We, the PEOPLE."
 Prayer said every single day in the OO.

2. An anon figured the 2nd and 3rd posts were corrections to "Socities" but not so sure. Could have another meaning.

3. Q posts a photo that an anon quickly found to match the inside of the Shanghai Pudong International Airport - Gate E. I found another image that clearly matches. Perhaps whomever departed Noi Bai International Airport was picked up/met at Gate E of this airport.

The MahaNakhon tower was just completed in Bangkok's financial district. It rises to more than 1,030 feet and is now the tallest building in the country. But more than height, it's the tower's striking architecture that is turning heads.

The tower was designed by Ole Scheeren, formerly a partner at OMA, according to Carbed. It was designed to look like it was made from thousands of individual cubes – almost like a skyscraper built from Legos or in the game Minecraft.

The 1.6 million square-foot building will house Ritz-Carlton-branded apartments, selling for millions of dollars each. It cost roughly $620 million.

5. Assumption College which appears in the last photo Q posted:

6. Q says rogue operators use this site for comms (Error Code: 301 - Moved Permanently). Not sure if the John referenced is John Perry Barlow who just "died" yesterday (co-founder of the whistle blower site Freedom of the Press) or John Brennan (former CIA director).

JFK Conference Room = the Situation Room
The Situation Room, officially known as the John F. Kennedy Conference Room,[1] is a 5,525-square-foot (513.3 m2)[2] conference room and intelligence management center in the basement of the West Wing of the White House. It is run by the National Security Council staff for the use of the President of the United States and their advisors (including the National Security Advisor, the Homeland Security Advisor and the White House Chief of Staff) to monitor and deal with crises at home and abroad and to conduct secure communications with outside (often overseas) persons. The Situation Room is equipped with secure, advanced communications equipment for the President to maintain command and control of U.S. forces around the world.

7. Q mentions black op (covert) sites in Asia. Not sure if Dopey (Alwaleed) has any connection to the Ritz Carlton in the MahaNakhon Tower (photo Q dropped earlier). It appears Q team has shut them down.
