Calm. Tranquil. Setting sun. Dusk

Peaceful end to the 70 year old nightmare.
No more division, no more fuse.

Setting sun of the fake half of the hermit kingdom in a tranquil manner.

Kim boy looks beaten, puffing out chest in last act of defiance.

1. The Red October Steel Plant in Stalingrad was obliterated during World War II and was rebuilt by the Soviets before the war ended, using such materials as they could obtain. The machinery is 25 years out of date, and the director of the factory admitted recently that some of the machines were 50 years old. The director added that a new rolling mill plant is going to be built as soon as possible. The plant contains six open hearth furnaces of the Siemens Martin type. The blooming mill machines, which are of German manufacture, bear the names Demag and Schulmann. The blooming mill motors are made at an electrical factory in Leningrad. A recent visitor saw no evidence of electric furnaces at the steel plant.
2. Cleanliness in the factory is well below [redacted] standards. Close to the factory is a plant club, which is extremely clean, containing a good theater, recreation rooms, library, canteens, and billiard rooms. The general standard was far in advance of similar clubs [redacted]
3. Those workers who have a good record for production have their photographs prominently displayed in various parts of the factory. In addition, there are bulletin boards in the factory, on which are written the names of good and bad workers. All the cranes, except the 50-ton crane used for handling liquid metal, are operated by women.

Editorial

This issue of CAB focuses on the fascist connection, in particular the U.S. role in helping hundreds, perhaps thousands, of prominent Nazis avoid retribution at the end of World War II. The CIA (originally the OSS) and the U.S. military, along with the Vatican, were instrumental in exfiltrating war criminals not just to Latin America, but to the United States as well.

As the Reagan administration attempts to rewrite history, it is worthwhile to examine carefully the wartime and postwar machinations of the extreme Right. The President goes to Bieleburg claiming it is time to forgive and forget, when in reality he is merely cutting a crude political deal with the reactionary West German government for its approval of Star Wars by giving his assent to the SS.

Harboring War Criminals

As we demonstrate in the pages of this issue, war criminals like Josef Mengele, Walter Rauff, and Klaus Barbie did not simply vanish at the end of the war or gracefully retire. Most of them spent several years in the direct employ of the U.S. intelligence agencies and, when necessary, were set up in business in Latin America or the U.S. The Kameradenwerk—the Nazi old boy network—remained active over the years, vigorous enough to have planned and carried out the 1980 coup in Bolivia, for example, and to have held high places in Pinochet's government in Chile. And they are major figures in the international arms and drug trades as well—traffic which the U.S. tries to blame on the socialist countries.

Hundreds of Nazis have been set up in scientific institutions in this country. Ironically, it now appears that Star Wars is merely an extension of the Nazis' wartime rocket research. Much of the U.S. space program was designed by them. When the Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations learned that the scientist responsible for the Apollo-11 moon trip, Arthur L.H. Rudolph, was a war criminal who exploited slave laborers to their deaths in his Nazi rocket factory, he was allowed to depart the U.S. voluntarily with no prosecution and no public announcement until he was safely back in West Germany.

Rudolph was only one of thousands of fascist scientists, doctors, technicians, and, above all, intelligence operatives, as

Why is steel so important? Let's look where steel -was- produced in our country. These cities are blue strongholds, still, and many are located around areas of poor minorities, since mills closed and wealth left the area. If Trump brings these people back in to work he can effectively eliminate blue-collar/poor black democrat areas. AMERICAN STEEL

10. An anon pointed out 11-11-18 is the 100 year anniversary of WWI Armistice. Another anon pointed out a few other reasons why this parade will be special.

In 1918, on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in World War I, then known as "the Great War."

Because by November it will be a VICTORY parade that marks the end of an era and the beginning of a bright new future. The nation needs this kind of special celebration to bring people together and give them hope and energize them for the work ahead.

For many the events of 2018 will be shocking in the medical sense, so this will help people heal physically and mentally.
