Pretty clear fm threats by Brennan, Holder, Power, Swalwell, McMullen, and others (warning to McCabe who threatened to take everyone down?) on top of (coded?) March Madness tweets btwn Hussein & GHWB, and Schumer's warning re: stopping Mueller's SC, that they are in panic mode.

Panic mode.
Enjoy the show.

2. Assuming targeted individuals like HRC, Huma, & Hussein are allowed to travel because they're on a whitelist for specified (pre-planned) locations under strict (monitored) conditions to give appearance of normalcy while stage is set by Q team. Hussein has already lawyered up.

4. Yes...the Swamp Rats are panicking. Here Schumer is warning @realDonaldTrump that ending the bogus Russian Collusion investigation would be crossing a "red line". What exactly is Chucky implying will happen if he does?

9. Dems KNOW there was no Russian collusion. Their faux outrage re: @POTUS ending Mueller probe is because they NEED it to continue 'til midterms so they can win back the House via rigged elections and move to impeach. Many districts w/no R's running. Why?

STCW White List expanded

For latest List of Confirmed Parties please click here

Maritime Safety Committee – 74th session: 30 May – 8 June 2001

The so-called "White List" of countries assessed to be properly implementing the revised STCW Convention (STCW 95) has been updated by IMO. The 74th session of the Organization's Maritime Safety Committee (MSC), meeting from 30 May to 8 June 2001, received reports from IMO Secretary-General William O'Neill confirming that a further 23 Member States had communicated information demonstrating that they were giving "full and complete effect" to the relevant provisions of the Convention. The "White List" now comprises 94 States and one IMO Associate Member.

A position on the White List entitles other Parties to the STCW Convention to accept, in principle, that certificates issued by or on behalf of the parties on the list are in compliance with the revised STCW (the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers) as amended, which entered into force on 1 February 1997. The amended Convention sets out clearly defined minimum competency requirements for all seafarers and takes into account developments in technology since the original 1978 Convention was adopted.

The new White List is contained in an MSC Circular, which notes that, as the process of communicating and evaluating information is continuing, further Parties may be added to the list at annex at its subsequent meetings. For most countries, preparation of the submissions to the Secretary-General represents a demanding and challenging task requiring not only reporting on national laws, training requirements, standards and systems in place, but also ensuring that all of those elements met the revised Convention requirements and could pass the scrutiny of persons with detailed knowledge of those requirements.

A Flag State Party that is on the White List may, as a matter of policy, elect not to accept seafarers with certificates issued by non White List countries for service on its ships. If it does accept such seafarers, they will be required by 1 February 2002 also to have an endorsement, issued by the flag State, to show that their certificate is recognized by the flag State. By 1 February 2002, masters and officers should hold STCW 95 certificates or endorsements issued by the flag State. Certificates issued and endorsed under the provisions of the 1978 STCW Convention will be valid until their expiry date.

Special Counsel Mueller has served our country with honesty and integrity. It's critical he be allowed to complete a thorough investigation into Russia's interference in the 2016 election — unimpeded.
