4. Q asks if MSM is talking about red v. blue pill & references to The Matrix. I noticed John Stossel had a piece yesterday on Fox asking "Why so many are 'taking the red pill' (and discovering the truth about the mainstream media)". No coincidences!!

In the movie "The Matrix," swallowing a red pill reveals the truth, while downing a blue pill leaves you trapped in illusion.

6. Revisiting first drop where Q says: HRC 2.12.09 Very BAD!

Colgan Air Flt 3407 crashed on 2.12.09. Beverly Eckert (co-chair 9/11 Family Steering Committee & husband killed on 9/11) was killed. Q has mentioned "7/10 plane crashes are targeted kills".

victims [edit]

A total of 50 people died, including the 49 passengers and crew on board when the aircraft was destroyed, and one resident of the house that was struck. There were four injuries on the ground, including two other people inside the home at the time of the crash. Among the dead were:

- Alison Des Forges, a human rights investigator and an expert on the Rwandan genocide.^[109]
- Beverly Eckert, who became co-chair of the 9/11 Family Steering Committee and a leader of Voices of September 11 after her husband Stan Rooney was killed in the September 11 attacks. She was en route to Buffalo to celebrate her husband's 50th birthday and attend a memorial service at the Buffalo Soldiers Museum.^[110]
- Gerry Niewood and Coleman Mellett, jazz musicians who were en route to a concert with Chuck Mangione and the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra.^[111]
- Susan White, the first American female Jewish Renewal cantor.^[112]

Reactions [edit]

- Colgan Air set up a telephone number for families and friends of those affected to call on February 13, and a family assistance center was opened at the Cheektowaga Senior Center in Cheektowaga CDP, Town of Cheektowaga, New York.^{[109][113]} The American Red Cross also opened reception centers in Buffalo and Newark where family members could receive support from mental health and spiritual care workers.^[114]
- During the afternoon, the U.S. House of Representatives held a moment of silence for the victims and their families.^[115]
- Buffalo's professional ice hockey team, the Buffalo Sabres, held a moment of silence prior to their scheduled game the next night against the San Jose Sharks.^[116]
- The University at Buffalo (UB), which lost 11 passengers who were former employees, faculty or alumni, and 12 who were family members of faculty, employees, students or alumni in the crash, also held a remembrance service on February 17, 2009.^{[117][118]} A band with the flight number was worn on UB players' uniforms for the remainder of the basketball season.
- Buffalo State College's 11th President Muriel Howard released a statement regarding the six alumni lost on Flight 3407. Beverly Eckert was a 1975 graduate from Buffalo State.^[119]
- On March 4, 2009, New York Governor David Paterson proposed the creation of a scholarship fund to benefit children and financial dependents of the 50 crash victims. The Flight 3407 Memorial Scholarship would cover costs for up to four years of undergraduate study at a SUNY or CUNY school, or a private college or university in New York State.^[121]
- The accident was the basis for a PBS Frontline episode on the regional airline industry. Discussed in the episode were issues relating to regional airline regulation, training requirements, safety, and working conditions.^[142] Also discussed were the operating principles of regional airlines and the agreements between regional airlines and major airlines.^[143]
