Q posted a photo of what appears to be a Jet Blue plane climbing altitude (departing the area). Were photos taken from another plane or air traffic control tower?

2. This photo posted by Q looks like the Apple HQ building in Cupertino, CA. We know Apple CEO, Tim Cook just visited the WH last week to discuss trade (e.g. w/China).

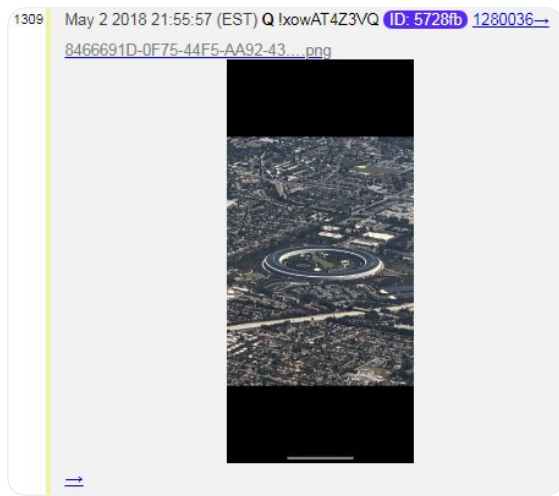

Apple's New Headquarters Is a Sign of Tech's Boom, Bravado

Apple Inc.'s new headquarters in Silicon Valley is the most lavish in a spate of glitzy new architectural projects by tech titans at a time when their businesses are booming and market valuations are...

3. This appears to be an Apple store in Hong Kong. No idea what is in those boxes. Perhaps it's a way of letting the Clowns lurking on the boards know that Q team knows what Apple has been up to. Cash? Organs? Illegal Chinese made components? Your guess is as good as mine.

4. Odd timing of Q's Jet Blue pic, mystery shipping crates and Jet Blue offering to fly 350 pizzas cross country. The fact that Marina Abramovic endorses it makes it all the more suspect.

Patsy's Pizzeria goes cross-country with JetBlue and Spike Lee

With a little help from quintessential New Yorker Spike Lee, L.A. gets a taste of real pizza with JetBlue's "Pie in the Sky" limited promo.

5. Correction to my last tweet in this thread re: Marina Abramovic. It appears that the screen shot of that tweet is just a photo of Spike Lee with her and not related to promoting the Jet Blue cross country pizza gig. Still find it strange.

@threadreaderapp unroll please.
