Iraq says five IS commanders captured after crossing from Syria: state TV

Reuters Staff 1 MIN READ

BAGHDAD (Reuters) - Iraq captured five Islamic State commanders after its intelligence services lured them into crossing from neighboring Syria, Iraqi state TV reported on Wednesday.

It described the five as "some of the most wanted" leaders of the group. They were named as Saddam al-Jammal, Mohamed al-Qadeer, Iemal al-Eithawi, Omar al-Karbouli and Essam al-Zawabi and were shown in yellow prisoner uniforms.

Iraqi Prime Minister Haider al-Abadi said last month he would "take all necessary measures" against militants based in Syria. The Iraqi air force has carried out several air strikes since last year against Islamic State positions in Syrian territory.

Abadi declared final victory last December over the ultra-hardline group, which overran a third of Iraq in 2014. But the militants still pose a threat along the border with Syria and have continued to carry

Iran Confirms Zarif-Kerry Meeting in New York

TEHRAN (FNA)- Iran on Monday confirmed media reports that Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif had met with former US Secretary of State John Kerry in New York two weeks ago to salvage the 2015 nuclear deal, but meantime, stressed that the minister has had no meeting with the Trump administration officials.

17. Some anons believe D5 has nothing to do with chess. D5 is also the highest rating for an avalanche and in the context of Q's drop where it says: "The snowball has begun rolling - there is no stopping it now. D5." This makes the most sense.

United States Avalanche Rating Codes

Destructive Force

D1 – Relatively harmless to people

D2 – Could bury, injure, or kill people

D3 – Could bury and destroy car, damage a truck, destroy a wood frame house or break a few trees

D4 - Could destroy a railroad car, large truck, several buildings or a substantial amount of forest.

D5 –Could gouge the landscape. Largest snow avalanche known.

Size - Relative To Path

R1 – Very small, relative to the path.

R2 – Small, relative to the path.

R3 – Medium, relative to the path.

R4 – Large, relative the path.

R5 – Relative to the path.

PENTAGON KILLS LIFELOG PROJECT

THE PENTAGON CANCELED its so-called LifeLog project, an ambitious effort to build a database tracking a person's entire existence.

Run by Darpa, the Defense Department's research arm, LifeLog aimed to gather in a single place just about everything an individual says, sees or does: the phone calls made, the TV shows watched, the magazines read, the plane tickets bought, the e-mail sent and received. Out of this seemingly endless ocean of information, computer scientists would plot distinctive routes in the data, mapping relationships, memories, events and experiences.
