The point of interest:

>In 1946, the Supreme Court decided the case of Marsh v. Alabama, in which a Jehovah's Witness was arrested for trespassing because she was distributing religious literature in Chickasaw, Alabama, a town that was wholly owned by the Gulf Shipbuilding Corporation. Marsh argued that because the town's roads and sidewalks were the only means by which she could exercise her freedom of speech—and because the town of Chickasaw had been open to public use in all other respects—the trespassing arrest violated her rights under the First Amendment.

>In a 5-3 decision, the Supreme Court ruled in Marsh's favor. Justice Hugo Black decreed that private entities do not have the right to ban speech on their property if they happen to own a monopoly on the means by which speech can take place. Black also argued that the more that private entities open their property up to public use, the fewer rights they have to control or ban what people do on that property.

>Given that Google, Twitter, Apple, Facebook, and other edge providers are publicly-accessible entities that have deliberately pushed for monopoly control over the Internet, it's clear that Marsh v. Alabama prohibits them from censoring right-wingers. The statute also applies to ISPs, since they wield a monopoly over Internet access. All it would take to shut down online censorship is a halfway-decent lawyer arguing that these left-wing Big Tech companies are literally violating the Constitution.

Obama officials set for Senate grilling on Russia, as Comey stands up committee

Brooke Singman 3 hrs ago

© FoxNews.com New questions for DOJ and James Comey over investigation of Michael Flynn.

The Senate Intelligence Committee is preparing to question top Obama administration intelligence officials behind closed doors on Wednesday on their explosive assessment that officially accused Russia of meddling in the 2016 presidential election to boost then-candidate Donald Trump.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DdVWaEuVwAAGyWa.jpg>

This FBI report is, well, quite simply, pure nonsense, that's why NSA Director Admiral Mike Rogers refused to endorse it.

[...] "And then you hear it's 17 agencies. Well, it's three. And one is Brennan and one is whatever. I mean, give me a break. They're political hacks."

"So you look at it — I mean, you have Brennan, you have Clapper, and you have Comey. Comey is proven now to be a liar and he's proven to be a leaker."

"So you look at that, and you have President Putin very strongly, vehemently says he had nothing to do with that. Now, you're not going to get into an argument. You're going to start talking about Syria and the Ukraine."

~ President Donald Trump

That quote was from President Trump in November 2017 and he's entirely correct. James Clapper (ODNI), John Brennan (CIA) and James Comey (FBI) were indeed political hacks.

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

May 15, 2018

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We write to request that you exercise your authority as President of the United States to instruct Attorney General Jeff Sessions to immediately produce all documents requested by Congress relating to our investigation of certain prosecutorial and investigative decisions made by the Department of Justice and FBI in 2016 and 2017.

In May 2017, Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein informed Congress that the Special Counsel's investigation should not impede ongoing Congressional investigations.<sup>1</sup> Additionally, Mr. Rosenstein requested that Congressional efforts coordinate with the Department of Justice.<sup>2</sup>

In the year that has passed since these commitments were made, the Department of Justice has failed to fully comply with regular and repeated Congressional requests and subpoenas. Our power as Congress to conduct investigations is broad, inherent and mandated by the Constitution.<sup>3</sup> As a separate and equal branch of government, we have a constitutional right to these documents.

To complete our independent oversight and investigative duties, we must obtain all documents responsive to previous requests by Congress. This includes the documents related to potential abuses of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act; documents related to the FBI and broader Department of Justice's initial investigation into the Trump campaign prior to the appointment of the Special Counsel; and the unredacted August 2017 memo written by Deputy Attorney General Rosenstein that articulated the scope of the Special Counsel's jurisdiction.

The Department of Justice has obstructed Congressional oversight by refusing to supply necessary and relevant documents. As members of the legislative branch, we believe the best course of action would be for you to exercise the powers vested in the Executive to make the documents we require available to

Rep. Jim Jordan ✓
@Jim_Jordan

It's high time for transparency. The DOJ and FBI have continually and repeatedly thwarted congressional oversight. We're asking @realDonaldTrump to direct the Attorney General to give us the documents—because the American people deserve answers.

20. An anon noted that with crooked NY AG Schneiderman out and a proper judge in place, the unsealing of the indictments for NY perps can begin which is why Weiner's was finally ordered unsealed yesterday. Did he cut a deal to rat out HRC & others? We will soon find out.

21. Correction on tweet #19 in this thread re: UNSEALING ORDER for Anthony Weiner. I incorrectly stated original sealed indictment was dated 26 Sep 2017. Should read 26 Sep 2016.

22. On 13 May, Q asked "Who controls elected leaders?" and "Will Iran expose the names of corrupt officials?" Both questions were followed by the word "Pickle". Anons have offered multiple possible meanings. I had guessed it was re: CIA's nickname "Pickle Factory". Q confirms.

PICL = Presidential Intelligence Check List

"A group representing German trade interests said the US decision to withdraw from the deal will hit German companies and urged the EU to protect their interests. Trade between Germany and Iran reached 3.4 billion euros ($4 billion) last year, according to BGA, another foreign trade association."

What about Total S.A.?

Total S.A. is a French multinational integrated oil and gas company and one of the seven "Supermajor" oil companies in the world.

Coincidence?

What about the safety & security of the world?

What about preventing Iran Nuclear capabilities?

Fake News.

Will the EU resort to protecting the deal so the money flow remains in place?

Why is Kerry in the EU?

Will the US be forced to ban and declare certain EU countries off limits?

Who controls elected leaders?

Who do elected leaders report to?

Pickle.

Will Iran expose the names of corrupt officials?

Will the US expose the names of corrupt officials + con deal?

We await your answer [48].

23. Anon posted @TheLastRefuge2's tweet re: codename "Crossfire Hurricane" is fake news because it doesn't show up in Page/Strzok tests. MSM trying to get ahead of BOMB(s) in OIG rpt. They know it's coming (or they've been told). Clowns wear masks (we had double agents in CIA?).
