New Q. The world really IS watching! The South Pole even! I feel sorry for those who refuse to SEE what so many around the world are seeing. Perhaps one day they will. God bless those fighting against globalism in their countries & a big shout-out to fellow Q warriors worldwide!

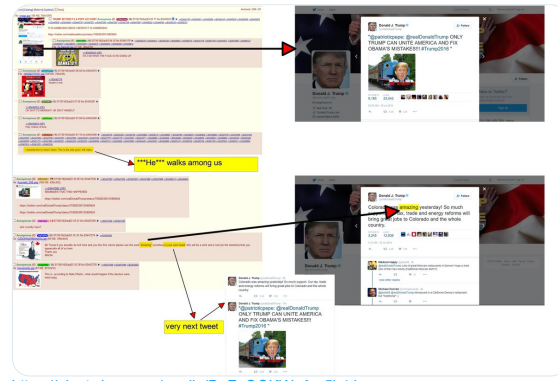

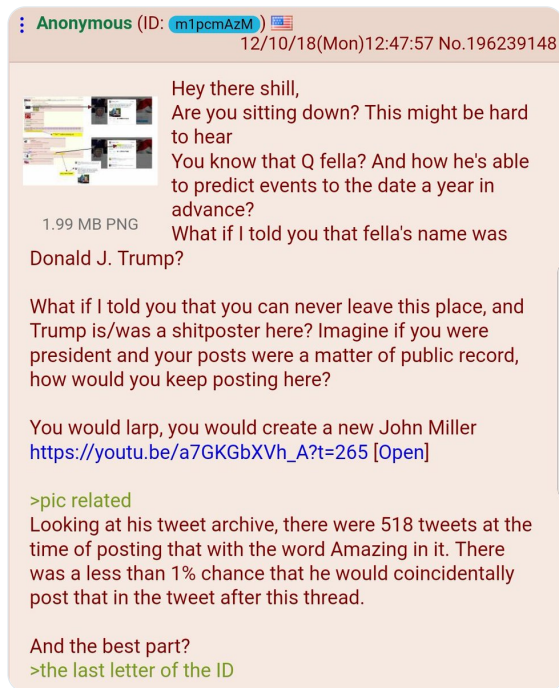

2. 4chan post shows how @POTUS has been posting as anon on 4chan even before Q. Quoted Patriotic Pepe tweet & used "amazing" in tweet per anon req. Using chans for comms & layering "coincidences" to understand the absolute veneration many felt for John F. Kennedy. He was to a large extent a president of tragically unfulfilled promise. His foreign policy record was mixed, from the extraordinary (defusing the Cuban missile crisis) to the desultory (the disastrous Bay of Pigs invasion, his underwhelming performance at the Vienna summit with Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev, and expanded U.S. involvement in Vietnam). His domestic record, while stronger, saw foot-dragging on the issue of civil rights.

THE NEW FRONTIER

But, like few presidents in American history, Kennedy understood the power of the bully pulpit. He challenged his audiences, he openly spoke of sacrifice in the name of patriotism, and he was willing to confront unpleasant untruths and seemingly intractable challenges. As he said at the opening of his acceptance speech, "The times are too grave, the challenge too urgent, and the stakes too high—to permit the customary passions of political debate." Recognizing the need to bring the country together, Kennedy largely eschewed any significant policy discussion, believing that to do so would risk dividing the nation between those who supported Democratic policies and those who did not. Kennedy felt that unity in facing great national challenges was too great a goal to take the chance of becoming mired in the specific details of fiscal, education, or health care policy.<sup>3</sup>

More directly, Kennedy was speaking to a new generation of leaders and citizens. These were not the baby boomers of today but the so-called greatest generation, which had ensured America's victory against the challenge of fascism during World War II. "All over the world, particularly in the newer nations, young men are coming to power—men who are not bound by the traditions of the past—men who are not blinded by the old fears and hates and rivalries—young men who can cast off the old slogans and delusions and suspicions."

With direct allusions to Gettysburg and the words of Lincoln, Kennedy imparted to his audience a message that the challenges

Find the spider(s) and build the web (the 'map').
Remember, they consider you to be the fly (specifically, the 'feeder').
Remember, they never thought she was going to lose.
Therefore, they never thought investigations and/or public interest into their criminal acts would be exposed/investigated.
Therefore, they never thought they had anything to fear.
Therefore, they openly showcase their symbolism.
Therefore, they were sloppy.

Why did he continually emphasize that phrase?
As a backup, they infiltrated and control the narrative (the 'MSM').
As a backup, they install only those on the team.
As a backup, they blackmail those that aren't.
As a backup, they defined 'conspiracy' as crazy/mentally unstable and label anything 'true' as such.
This works given most of what they engage in is pure evil and simply unbelievable (hard to swallow).
The 'fix' has always been in – no matter which party won the election (-JFK (killed)/Reagan(shot)).
This was always the promise made to those who played the game (willingly or otherwise) (i.e., they would never lose power).
Power of the (3) letter agencies.
Power over the US Military (WW dominance to push against other nations and install like-kind).
