New Q: After over 1000+ hit pieces in print failed to squelch growth of Q movement they're attempting to use TV/video. Too stupid to realize THEY helped GROW the movement by bringing new eyes on Q. They desperately want to CONTROL the msg but instead are helping wake up the masses.

DNI Dan Coats' Job May Be In Danger, According To Trump Ally

OAN Newsroom
UPDATED 1:20 AM PT — Monday, February 18, 2019

One of President Trump's closest allies is suggesting the president may be considering firing Director of National Intelligence Dan Coats.

In an interview Monday, Newsmax CEO Chris Ruddy said he spent the weekend with the president at Mar-a-Lago and spoke with a number of White House aides on several topics.

Ruddy said sources told him how disappointed the president was about Coats' threat assessment of North Korea during a hearing with lawmakers last month. He said it appears Coats is trying to make his own policy with his intelligence instead of following the president's diplomacy.

Former FBI General Counsel James Baker originally believed Hillary Clinton's mishandling of highly classified information was "alarming" and "appalling." At the time, he believed her use of a private server to send the classified emails was sufficient enough to secure an indictment to possibly charge her for violations under the Espionage Act, for mishandling sensitive government documents.

Baker held onto that belief until shortly before his former boss FBI Director James Comey made the public announcement not to charge Clinton on July 5, 2017. He said he changed his position only after arguing and discussing the situation over a period of time with senior colleagues at the bureau, to include Comey. Comey, however, had already written an early draft in May, exonerating Clinton and changing "grossly negligent," a legal term for mishandling classified information to "extremely careless," according to drafts obtained by the Senate Judiciary Committee in 2017.

Barr to Mueller:
"Bob, show me the evidence and reasoning for why this investigation was started and still ongoing."
Mueller to Barr:
"With regards to the President we have found no links or ties to any foreign entity etc"
Barr to Mueller:
"Mandate was clear - verify and investigate reports of possible foreign collusion between President & Russia."
"What justification existed to effectively launch a massive domestic / foreign surv campaign against the President (pres elect / president) and members of his transition / campaign team?"
Mueller to Barr:
"Steele dossier along w/ media corroboration of those findings."
Barr to Mueller:
"Was the Steele report a 'trusted and verified' report per Intel to continue especially considering the funding party was the opposition party?"
Mueller to Barr:
"Those facts were never taken into consideration." "FISC granted auth to conduct based on conclusions presented."
Barr to Mueller:
"Was FISC made aware of all details surrounding the dossier?"
Mueller to Barr:
"No." "We believe there was urgency placed on the auth given the gravity and timeline of events that those involved negated to populate fully."

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/Dz36WZ5XgAEgh0q.jpg>

Barr to Mueller:
"Why were efforts made to continue investigating the President, interrupt his official capacity in governing, if the only doc presented was unsubstantiated and unverified?"
"Why were questions and threat of subpoena communicated to the President if no factual foundation existed?"
"All charges thus far are unrelated to the original mandate - why are you still active and pursuing a crime if no verifiable evidence or evidence through discovery exists?"
Barr to RR:
"What justification did you have to effectively expand the mandate, not report that expansion to Congress, in order to seek a crime outside of R collusion?" "What specific reasoning and/or facts existed to justify the appointment of a SC to begin with per the law?" "Why did you recommend to Sessions that he should recuse?" "Why wasn't the mandate / budget and regular updates provided to Congress upon request?" "Why is everything kept confidential and under inappropriate classification?" "Was the purpose of investigating to find a crime vs investigate evidence of a crime?"

20. Board Notable: Was @AnnCoulter paid by Clinton campaign to promote then-candidate Trump as part of their "Pied Piper Strategy"? Was this strategy also used in 2012 vs Romney, who Coulter also endorsed?

Our Goals & Strategy

Our hope is that the goal of a potential HRC campaign and the DNC would be one-in-the-same: to make whomever the Republicans nominate unpalatable to a majority of the electorate. We have outlined three strategies to obtain our goal:

- 1) Force all Republican candidates to lock themselves into extreme conservative positions that will hurt them in a general election;
- 2) Undermine any credibility/trust Republican presidential candidates have to make inroads to our coalition or independents;
- 3) Muddy the waters on any potential attack lodged against HRC.

Operationalizing the Strategy

Pied Piper Candidates

There are two ways to approach the strategies mentioned above. The first is to use the field as a whole to inflict damage on itself similar to what happened to Mitt Romney in 2012. The variety of candidates is a positive here, and many of the lesser known can serve as a cudgel to move the more established candidates further to the right. In this scenario, we don't want to marginalize the more extreme candidates, but make them more "Pied Piper" candidates who actually represent the mainstream of the Republican Party. Pied Piper candidates include, but aren't limited to:

- Ted Cruz
- Donald Trump
- Ben Carson

We need to be elevating the Pied Piper candidates so that they are leaders of the pack and tell the press to them seriously.

To: The Democratic National Committee
Re: 2016 GOP presidential candidates
Date: April 7, 2015

Friends,

This memo is intended to outline the strategy and goals a potential Hillary Clinton presidential campaign would have regarding the 2016 Republican presidential field. Clearly most of what is contained in this memo is work the DNC is already doing. This exercise is intended to put those ideas to paper.

Our Goals & Strategy

Our hope is that the goal of a potential HRC campaign and the DNC would be one-in-the-same: to make whomever the Republicans nominate unpalatable to a majority of the electorate. We have outlined three strategies to obtain our goal:

- 1) Force all Republican candidates to lock themselves into extreme conservative positions that will hurt them in a general election;
- 2) Undermine any credibility/trust Republican presidential candidates have to make inroads to our coalition or independents;
- 3) Muddy the waters on any potential attack lodged against HRC.

Pied Piper Candidates

There are two ways to approach the strategies mentioned above. The first is to use the field as a whole to inflict damage on itself similar to what happened to Mitt Romney in 2012. The variety of candidates is a positive here, and many of the lesser known can serve as a cudgel to move the more established candidates further to the right. In this scenario, we don't want to marginalize the more extreme candidates, but make them more "Pied Piper" candidates who actually represent the mainstream of the Republican Party. Pied Piper candidates include, but aren't limited to:

- Ted Cruz
- Donald Trump
- Ben Carson

We need to be elevating the Pied Piper candidates so that they are leaders of the pack and tell the press to them seriously.

Undermining Their Message & Credibility

Most of the more-established candidates will want to focus on building a winning general election coalition. The "Pied Pipers" of the field will mitigate this to a degree, but more will need to be done on certain candidates to undermine their credibility among our coalition (communities of color, millennials, women) and independent voters. In this regard, the goal here would be to show that they are just the same as every other GOP candidate: extremely conservative on these issues. Some examples:

- Jeb Bush
  - What to undermine: the notion he is a "moderate" or concerned about regular Americans; perceived inroads with the Latino population.
- Marco Rubio
  - What to undermine: the idea he has "fresh" ideas; his perceived appeal to Latinos

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/Dz5wGM5W0AAzJr1.jpg>

- Scott Walker
  - What to undermine: the idea he can rally working- and middle class Americans.
- Rand Paul
  - What to undermine: the idea he is a "different" kind of Republican; his stance on the military and his appeal to millennials and communities of color.
- Bobby Jindal
  - What to undermine: his "new" ideas
- Chris Christie
  - What to undermine: he tells it like it is.

Muddying the Waters

As we all know, the right wing attack machine has been building its opposition research on Hillary Clinton for decades. The RNC et al has been telegraphing they are ready to attack and do so with reckless abandon. One way we can respond to these attacks is to show how they boomerang onto the Republican presidential field. The goal, then, is to have a dossier on the GOP candidates on the likely attacks HRC will face. Based on attacks that have already occurred, the areas they are highlighting:

- Transparency & disclosure
- Donors & associations
- Management & business dealings

In this regard, any information on scandals or ethical lapses on the GOP candidates would serve well. We won't be picky.

Again, we think our goals mirror those of the DNC. We look forward to continuing the conversation.
