Dan Coats has been doing an outstanding job as Director of National Intelligence. He speaks truth to power and gives policy makers the best intelligence possible. He is loyal to the country and constitution, and that is as it should be.

Dan Coats Expected to Step Down as Intelligence Chief

An establishment Republican, Dan Coats clashed with President Trump over Russia and other issues as his director of intelligence. Eric Thayer for The New York Times

WASHINGTON — Dan Coats, the director of national intelligence, is expected to step down in the coming days after spending his tenure at odds with President Trump over issues including Russia and Mr. Trump's own attacks on the intelligence community, people familiar with the decision said on Sunday.

To replace him, the people said, the president was likely to tap Representative John Ratcliffe, a Texas Republican and staunch defender of Mr. Trump. As a member of the House Judiciary Committee, he sharply questioned Robert S. Mueller III, the former special counsel, at last week's hearing.

July 15, 2019

The Honorable Brian E. Frosh
Maryland Attorney General
200 St. Paul Place
Baltimore, MD 21202

Dear Attorney General Frosh,

I respectfully request that the Maryland Attorney General's Office investigate potential abuse and misuse of a Maryland nonprofit through its coordination with a Maryland corporation. The nonprofit Center for Global Policy Solutions ("Center"), through the for-profit Global Policy Solutions, LLC ("GPS"), appears to provide an improper financial benefit to Ms. Maya Rockeymore Cummings and her husband, Representative Elijah Cummings. As part of your mission to protect citizens donations to legitimate nonprofit organizations, this situation requires oversight and investigation to ensure that these entities are operating in accordance with the law.

The Center is a nonprofit organization with its most recent Form 990 filed for 2017. In the 2017 filing, the address for the nonprofit is listed as 2221 St Paul Street, Baltimore MD 21218.¹ The principal officer is listed as Ms. Rockeymore Cummings.²

GPS is registered with the state of Maryland. Its principal place of business is located at 2221 Saint Paul St. Suite 1, Baltimore, MD 21218. The resident agent for the entity is Ms. Maya Rockeymore Cummings, located at the same address.³ Additionally, Representative Cummings disclosed with the U.S. House of Representatives a financial interest in GPS, stating that Ms. Rockeymore Cummings owns 100 percent of GPS, a for-profit company.⁴

The Center and GPS bear a strikingly close resemblance. Ms. Rockeymore Cummings serves as the principal officer and is the sole staff member listed on the Center's website.⁵ Ms. Rockeymore Cummings is also the sole owner and only staff member listed for GPS.⁶ The entities share the same phone number and the same address.⁷

Additionally, there is significant overlap in the projects and revenue of the two entities. In 2017, GPS was selected for a $1 million grant from the General Services Administration for the "Leadership for Healthy Communities" project while the Center served as the national program office for the same project.⁸ Further, the Center and GPS have each received over $5 million from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.⁹ This close relationship alone is worthy of investigation.

Moreover, since the Center's inception in 2012, significant amounts of money have been exchanged directly between the nonprofit Center and the for-profit GPS. Two independent audits have found that the Center and GPS were related parties and had entered into cost sharing agreements as early as 2013.¹⁰ Additionally, the Center paid a management fee of 5 percent of the Center's expenses to GPS.¹¹ This management fee does not include an additional $152,238 and $78,180 in salary paid to Ms. Rockeymore Cummings for her role in managing the Center, according to the two of the most recent Forms 990.¹²

Because of the significant shared projects, shared resources, and shared oversight between the Center for Global Policy Solutions and Global Policy Solutions, LLC, it is critical that your office investigate these entities doing business in Maryland. Ms. Rockeymore Cummings' nonprofit has paid significant management fees to her own for-profit company and she has been paid directly over $200,000. This potentially improper financial benefit to Ms. Maya Rockeymore Cummings and her husband, Representative Elijah Cummings is serious in nature. This is a unique situation that warrants necessary oversight to maintain public confidence in nonprofit donations. Therefore, we respectfully request that you review this financial arrangement to ensure full compliance with the law.

Sincerely,

Kendra Arnold
