Was going to hold out until Q posted on their /patriotsfight/ board to confirm the drops on 8kun are legit, but according to @CodeMonkeyZ (weeks ago), the trip code would be the same as on 8chan. Still hoping for direct confirmation via /patriotsfight/ board.

2. On 2 Nov, these posts with Q's tripcode fm 8chan were dropped on the newly-launched 8kun site. They appear to be security/comm tests. The site was (& still is) under heavy attack by black hats & the founder of 8chan who is determined to keep 8kun offline to stop Q fm posting.

6. "RIG FOR RED" is when submarine lights are turned red before heading to periscope depth to make it easier for crewmembers' eyes to adjust to darkness. The use of this term in this drop may indicate a need to prepare for what's in Horowitz's report & DECLAS. Just guessing here.

RIG FOR RED
Q

Rig for Red: Also rig for romantic or rig for Johnny Mathis (this last one is no longer in use I'm sure, as it's way too dated). Turn the control center lights to red in preparation for PD. Red light making it easier for your eyes to adjust to darkness when you rigged for black prior to heading up to PD. Back in the late 1980s, on my first boat, we all smoked, so you would constantly hear calls of "bright light in control," as people lit cigarettes, always careful to cup the lighter in your hands to minimize the glare in the blackness of control. Sometimes, instead, we would send the lee helm out to nav center to light 7 or 8 cigarettes and bring them back to pass around to their intended recipients.

Project 'Looking Glass' seems to have evolved from an intelligence-gathering technology that has been in use since the 50s. It appears that some of the new ET-related stuff is giving it a 'quantum' boost (pun intended!). As near as I can figure, the goal is to "look" into the future and see what scenarios are likely. Then transmit the information BACK to the 'present' so the Powers-That-Be can take 'evasive action'.
