New drop (11 Feb '20). Yesterday Joe diGenova said on @WMALDC WH knows who anonymous author of @nytimes hit piece on POTUS was. Today reporter asks POTUS & he wouldn't say but that we'd be surprised. I posted a few tweets about it:

2. Wondering if this anonymous hit piece was yet another trap. @nytimes said they know who it is. Perhaps this op-ed by someone claiming to be part of the "Resistance" made bad actors comfortable around him/her & enabled white hats to catch more swamp rats in criminal activity.

3. To refresh your memory, since this was written in Sep 2018, the @nytimes KNOWS this person's identity. Isn't it curious they asked POTUS about THIS anonymous person but refuse to ask him about the OTHER anonymous entity that goes by the letter "Q"?

The Times is taking the rare step of publishing an anonymous Op-Ed essay. We have done so at the request of the author, a senior official in the Trump administration whose identity is known to us and whose job would be jeopardized by its disclosure. We believe publishing this essay anonymously is the only way to deliver an important perspective to our readers. We invite you to submit a question about the essay or our vetting process here. Update: Our answers to some of those questions are published [here.]

@Sun_Q_Tzu @nytimes 4. For those who don't think the reporter was asking about the anonymous author of the @nytimes op-ed in Sep '18, this book by "Anonymous" was also written by that same senior WH insider.

Could This Be the Guy Who Wrote Anonymous's "Warning"?

The op-ed and book from a mysterious Trump administration official bear a striking resemblance to a former Pentagon aide's memoir.
