Read carefully.
Sound familiar?
Sometimes a leak turns into a flood.
Q

The January 2017 intelligence community assessment in question concluded with "high confidence" that Russian President Vladimir Putin "ordered an influence campaign in 2016" and that Russia worked to "undermine public faith in the U.S. democratic process, denigrate former Secretary of State [Hillary] Clinton, and harm her electability and potential presidency" and "developed a clear preference for President-elect Trump."

The NSA diverged on one aspect, expressing only "moderate confidence" that Putin actively tried to help Trump's election chances and harm those of Clinton by contrasting her unfavorably.

Why is POTUS pushing the FBI & DOJ on this issue?
 What if access to the server(s) was deliberate?
 What if this is 'known' within the intelligence community?
 What if this is 'known' within the FBI & DOJ?
 If known - why no action?
 How might this discredit the FBI's investigation into HRC's emails?
 How might this OPEN THE DOOR to [WEINER] / [Huma] / [HRC]?
 Logical thinking.
 WHY WAS THE INFORMATION ON WEINER'S LAPTOP IN THE FIRST PLACE?

 Why did POTUS refuse 'select' PDBs during transition?
 Who knew?

 Why did HUSSEIN + HRC + ADMIN + Staff + ... use private emails to communicate?
 Was HRC the only one to use unsecured server(s)?
 If access was granted re: HRC private server(s) can you assume access was granted re: House server(s) re: AWAN?

FBI Memos Raise Deep Questions About Russia/Trump Intel Assessment

By Sara Carter - September 20, 2018

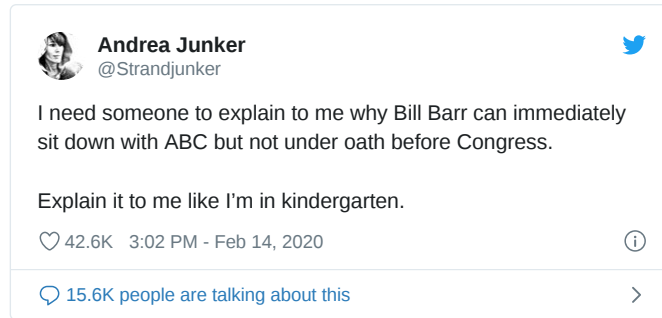

The FBI had concerns with the intelligence community's (IC) January 2017 assessment that the Kremlin interfered in the presidential election with the specific intent of electing President Trump over Hillary Clinton.

In newly obtained emails, bureau officials noted there

...s not enough intelligence to support the January 2017 findings by the CIA which concluded Vladimir Putin meddled in the 2016 election to help Trump, according to a numerous documents and text messages obtained by SaraACarter.com.

2. This person wasn't expecting the response to her question! Barr will testify on 31 Mar but appeared on ABC last night distancing himself fm POTUS re: tweets. "Optics are important."

@DevinNunes said ""It probably won't go very well for the Democrats."

Q

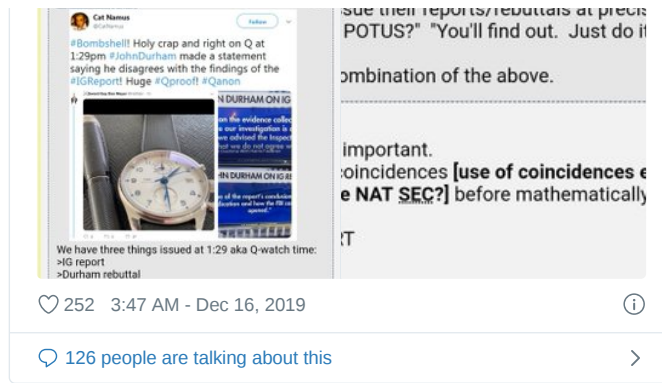

Rep. Devin Nunes is looking forward to Attorney General William Barr's testimony next month.

"It probably won't go very well for the Democrats. Attorney General Barr seems to always have a full handle of all the facts," Nunes, the top Republican on the House Intelligence Committee, said during a Fox Business interview on Thursday.

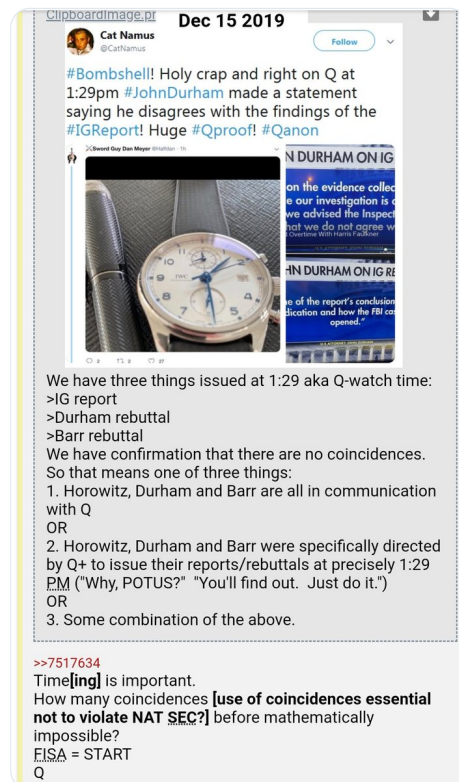

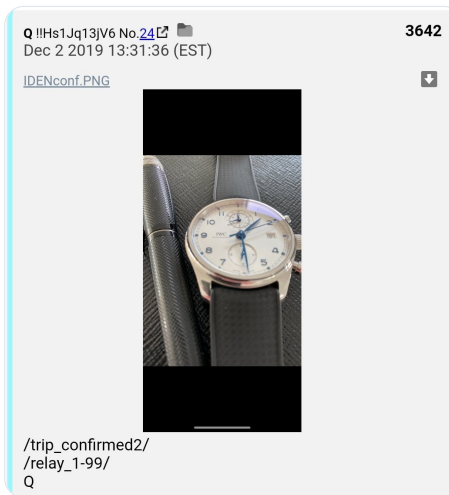

The senior Justice Department official will answer lawmakers' questions when he testifies before the House Judiciary Committee on March 31. His testimony will come weeks after the Justice Department scaled back a sentencing recommendation for former Trump adviser Roger Stone, who was found guilty of witness tampering and lying to Congress.

4. Not sure why Q linked to this anti-Q account but he was right to say DOJ dropping the charges fm the OIG referral has nothing to do w/Durham's investigation. He retracted shortly after saying it was "unacceptable" that they dropped the charge.

John Cardillo (@johncardillo)

I'm retracting my earlier tweets giving benefit of the doubt to Barr and Durham

If anyone should have been made an example of, it was McCabe. He was literally fired for a 1001 criminal violation.

This is unacceptable, and has shaken my confidence in both of them.

Okay I think it is fixed now. Please let me know if image upload works fine or not. Sorry about that everybody.

Coincidentally, 28 Dec meme had Comey & McCabe in behind bars.
Today many were understandably upset McCabe's charges dropped.

We already knew (since 1 Aug) that Comey was not going to be prosecuted for leaking his memos.

"Bigger [slam-dunk] charges coming?"

Yes.

For starters, he KNOWINGLY signed off on a FISA application he knew was based on flawed intel.
