New Q (17 Feb '20) Timing of new book by reporter tipped off re: tarmac mtg is no coincidence. Public outcry re: POTUS tweets influencing Barr is a joke compared to Clinton bribing LL to force Comey to drop HRC email investigation.

"The OPA Supervisor said that he later learned that former President Clinton's Secret Service detail had contacted Lynch's FBI security detail and let them know that the former President wanted to meet with Lynch. Although Lynch's staff was supposed to receive notice of such requests, witnesses told us that they were not informed of the request from former President Clinton."

Coordination?

Q

Who are the superdelegates?

Superdelegates are either members of the Democratic National Committee, elected officials serving as a governor or member of Congress, and distinguished party leaders.

Unlike at-large or district-level delegates, they are neither elected by Democratic presidential primary voters nor required to pledge their support to a specific presidential candidate. Beginning with the 2020 presidential election, they are prohibited from voting on the first ballot at a contested national convention.

In 2020, there will be an estimated 764 superdelegates.^[6] The Democratic National Committee is expected to confirm the names of the automatic delegates by state no later than March 6, 2020.^[7]
