New drop (20 Feb '20). NYT appears to be spinning what was VERY likely a sex trafficking op via Epstein & L Brands as simply a "culture of misogyny, bullying and harassment".

This stood out to me: "was almost like brainwashing."

Even Branson involved.

Is last line for [PS] Strzok? Rats fleeing? White Hats lit a fire?

'Like Rats Fleeing a Sinking Ship': A History

The phrase 'like rats fleeing a sinking ship' has a surprisingly long record of use. It was originally phrased as 'rats fleeing a house,' but around the 17th century the 'sinking ship' analogy entered...

In the video, the speaker said he was delivering a "personal message to all Americans" that "your country is under control of invisible secret societies." In a slow and deliberate voice in accented English, he said there are "deep underground military bases" in which "they abuse, torture and kill little children."

He made no reference to the far-right fringe QAnon movement in the United States, but the message was similar to the movement's central, baseless belief that Donald Trump is waging a secret campaign against enemies in the "deep state" and a child sex trafficking ring run by satanists and cannibals.

In his manifesto, he made one reference to Trump, writing: "I doubt that Donald Trump knowingly implements my recommendations." He suggested that "mind control" might be at work.

President Trump rips the Roger Stone trial:

"What happened to him [Roger Stone] is unbelievable... Comey lied, McCabe lied, Lisa Page lied, her lover, Peter Strzok lied. You had people that forged documents and wrote fake dossiers and brought them to the FBI."

Of all the scenes from "White Squall" to include in the 3-min montage (starting at 1:30:11) of Jeff Bridges' film highlights at last night's Golden Globes, pretty wild that they included the bell with "Where we go one we go all" inscribed (at 1:32:32)!
