Whereas, The Constitution of the United States has ordained that "The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless, when in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it; and, whereas, a rebellion was existing on the 3d day of March, 1863, which rebellion is still existing; and, whereas, by a statute which was approved on that day, it was enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress assembled, that during the present insurrection the President of the United States, whenever, in his judgment, the public safety may require, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in any case throughout the United States or any part thereof; and, whereas, in the judgment of the President the public safety does require that the privilege of the said writ shall now be suspended throughout the United States in cases where, by the authority of the President of the United States, military, naval and civil officers of the United States, or any of them, hold persons under their command or in their custody, either as prisoners of war, spies or aiders or abettors of the enemy, or officers, soldiers or seamen enrolled, drafted or mustered or

Lisa Mei Crowley @LisaMei62

I see Q is posting but unable to access boards at work. I do have access to Twitter & see this CLOWN isn't giving up. He's too stupid to realize those blue titles at the top of the drops ARE NOT FROM Q. Those titles are generated by whoever runs Qmap. 8Chan = 8Kun. Idiot.

The judge cited a 1991 memorandum from a Muslim Brotherhood official explaining the organization's goals in America as follows:

"Understanding the role of the Muslim Brotherhood in North America" is "a kind of grand Jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within and sabotaging its miserable house by their hands and the hands of the believers so that it is eliminated and God's religion is made victorious over all other religions."
