Europeans are already wistful in anticipation. Pictures of Obama on holiday in Tuscany with his wife, Michelle - relaxed and smiling in an open-buttoned shirt - have only heightened the sense of longing for a president whose rationality, sophistication and emotional intelligence often contrast with his successor.

Regarding Obama's Berlin visit, the highpoint of a season of celebrations to mark the 500th anniversary of the Protestant church, the Leipziger Zeitung wrote that his presence in Germany would be like that of a "healer".

"Already he is a painfully missed ex-president," the newspaper wrote in an editorial, describing him as an "eloquent, charismatic preacher" - qualities it suggested were sorely lacking in Trump.

ILS stands for Instrument Landing System.

Whilst the ILS is used for most landings, it is most useful when it is cloudy or visibility is poor, as it allows the pilots (or autopilot) to fly the aircraft all the way down to the runway, even if they only manage to see the runway in the final few seconds.
