Exchange & Engage

UDI Forum!

- Save the Date: 11/5-11/6
- The UDI Forum is a virtual event powered by the UDI Learning Community (LUC), designed to introduce and explore the value of Unique Device Identification (UDI) in health care.
 - 2 days
 - 6 CECs, ACHE applicable
- Sessions focus on:
 - Boost UDI confidence and data accuracy
 - Learn from real-world UDI success stories
 - Connect with peers on shared UDI goals
 - Streamline workflows and improve patient safety

AHRMM Keys/KPI Analysis Tool

- A completely free comprehensive benchmarking and comparative analysis tool, measure your own hospital/system's performance and compare against your peers.
- Recent streamlining of the KPI Tool to focus on 12 essential Keys across two categories.
 - 6 Operations Keys
 - 6 Finance Keys
- 150+ hospitals currently participating and uploading data across the 12 KPIs.
- 70-75 hospitals consistently upload data for the most tracked KPI, Supply Expense as % of Net Patient Revenue

Virtual Demo Days
take place biweekly
on Wednesdays

Young Professionals Advisory Council (YPAC)

THE platform for professional development and a forum for emerging leaders in the field to address the unique challenges facing the next generation of supply chain professionals and influence innovative solutions within health care.

YPAC CAREs! The four identifying pillars of YPAC's work are to:

- Connect — young professionals working in health care supply chain
- Advise — AHRMM on the professional needs of early careerists
- Represent — the interests of those 35 and under within AHRMM
- Engage — students and young professionals in the work of the profession

AHRMM Mentor Match

Provides a tool for health care supply chain professionals to connect with more experienced professionals in the field. The process of mentoring is as rewarding for the mentor as the mentee. You are able to use your experience in a new way and contribute to the success of someone working in the very same field you are.

Additionally, you may learn something new yourself! As a mentee, a mentoring relationship can help you with career planning, working through a particularly challenging issue, or simply finding an encouraging role model. As a mentor, guiding the next generation of health care supply chain professionals can be an incredibly rewarding and meaningful experience.
