

Foothills Foursquare Core Values

Generosity:

We believe that possessing a generous spirit allows us to give and bless others freely. This is consistent with, and an overflowing of, God's gracious benevolence towards us. (Matthew 10:8; II Corinthians 8:1, 2; 9:11-13)

Sincere Relationships:

We are committed to the continual pursuit of relational harmony, genuine affection and shared life that reflects the value of every person, the inclusion of each family member and the importance of strong community. (Rom 12:9-21; I Peter 4:8-10)

Process:

With the goal of spiritual maturity in mind, we contribute to the growth of every person. We are not driven by results, but we do value the wisdom and sharpening that comes along the way while we maintain a commitment to graciousness as Christ continues His work of perfection in us all. (Eph 4:1-3, 13; Phil 1:6; Hebrews 5:2)

Shared Leadership:

We are all appointed with God-given gifts! Foothills is a community that encourages, empowers and equips all to lead as servants. We encourage the release of Spirit filled and able leaders within the church family and recognize the importance of every roll. (Jeremiah 1:5, Philippians 2:3-4, Ephesians 4:11-16)

Integrity:

Words that describe integrity are honest, reliable, upright, sincere, genuine, and authentic. While we recognize we live in a fallen world, we strive to be women and men that are continually being transformed, healed, and made new in Christ Jesus. We believe in laying our "old self" down and striving for righteousness. (Eph 4:25; Col 3:9-10; 2 Cor 4:1-2)

Possession of firm principles: the quality of possessing and steadfastly adhering to high moral principles or professional standards

Completeness: the state of being complete or undivided

Wholeness: the state of being sound or undamaged
