HUMAN RIGHTS

DECEMBER

is

UNIVERSAL HUMAN RIGHTS MONTH

A time for people in the United States and around the world to join together and stand up for the rights and dignity of ALL individuals. December 10th is Human Rights Day, marking the date in 1948 that the U.S. adopted the Universal Declaration.

DECEMBER 3RD

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

United Nations' (UN) International Day of Persons with Disabilities is annually held on December 3 to focus on issues that affect people with disabilities worldwide. The International Day of Persons with Disabilities re-affirms and draws attention to the rights of people who live with disabilities.

International Migrants Day

Dec 18

Dignity, respect and fairness for all.

DECEMBER 18TH

INTERNATIONAL MIGRANTS DAY

A day to recognize the efforts, contributions and rights of migrants worldwide. Each year the United Nations, through the UN-related agency International Organization for Migration (IOM), uses International Migrants Day to highlight the contributions made by the roughly 272 million migrants, including more than 41 million internally displaced persons, and the challenges they face.
