TRANSGENDER DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

November 20th

also known as the International Transgender Day of Remembrance, has been observed annually (from its inception) on November 20 as a day to memorialize those who have been murdered as a result of transphobia. The day was founded to draw attention to the continued violence endured by transgender people. Transgender Day of Remembrance was founded in 1999.

WORLD FREEDOM DAY

November 9th

is a United States federal observance declared by then-President George W. Bush to commemorate the fall of the Berlin Wall and the end of communist rule in Central and Eastern Europe. It started in 2001 and is celebrated on November 9.

NATIONAL NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

A commemorative month for Native people in the United States of America to share their culture, traditions, music, crafts, dance, and ways and concepts of life. President George H.W. Bush in 1990 signed a joint congressional resolution designating the month of November "National American Indian Heritage Month."

International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women

The United Nations General Assembly has designated November 25 as the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women (Resolution 54/134). The premise of the day is to raise awareness around the world that women are subjected to rape, domestic violence and other forms of violence.

Veterans Day is a public holiday held on the anniversary of the end of World War I, on November 11, to honor US veterans and victims of all wars. This holiday is a celebration to honor America's veterans for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.
