Administering support services to both new and existing investors not to mention assistance with the acquisition of requisite permits Enhancing networking and business opportunities between local businesses and foreign associates Compiling, analyzing, and disseminating relevant information about investment opportunities, sources of capital, and a broad overview of the investment climate upon the request of an investor The GIPC ensures that investors fully settle in by lending a hand to help them to navigate administrative procedures and to further procure resources pertinent to the business they are seeking to establish in Ghana. Assistance offered include; Expediting the processing of incentives and duty exemptions Assisting investors with the acquisition of permits relevant to the setting-up and operation of an enterprise Aiding investors to prepare business and product profiles for the purpose of marketing and showcase.

Liaising with keen investors on collaborations in various forms Up-close interactions with the business community and investors via round table discussions and private meetings Managing a database of lands and properties allocated for investment purposes Another main function of the GIPC is to keep an eye on investors and coordinate their activities. To fulfil this task, the Centre engages in the following; Evaluating and making recommendations to the work of the Centre to ensure that the activities of the GIPC remain relevant to an investment in the country Filing and keeping data of all enterprises encapsulated in the GIPC Act 865 Registering and keeping data of all Technology Transfer Agreements relating to investments under this GIPC's governing Act. (Act 865) The Diaspora Investment Desk seeks to convert Ghana's gains made from the 'Year of Return' initiative into viable businesses and opportunities. Through the Diaspora Investment Desk, the GIPC will engage the diaspora community to attract necessary investment and capital to drive economic development and the Ghana Beyond Aid initiative.

RECRUITMENT

The Diaspora Investment Desk will therefore provide a central point for the coordination of investments, programs, and activities between the diaspora community and Ghana, with a view to harnessing the global Ghanaian resource potential as well as pep up the GIPC's objective of increasing Diaspora Direct Investment (DDI). In simple terms, the job of the GIPC can be summarized as the provision of assistance with your: Investor registration process Automatic immigrant quota (work and residence permit for expatriate employees) Import duty exemption on plant and machinery imports Facilitation for other statutory and local government permits and approval Thanks for reading and supporting the Ghanaian Standard. Follow GhStandard on Location of Ghana Ghana is a unitary presidential constitutional democracy, located along the Gulf of Guinea and Atlantic Ocean, in the subregion of West Africa. A multicultural nation, Ghana has a population of approximately 27 million, spanning a variety of ethnic, linguistic and religious groups.[1] Five percent of the population practices traditional faiths, 71.2% adhere to Christianity and 17.6% are Muslim. Its diverse geography and ecology ranges from coastal savannahs to tropical jungles. Ghana is a democratic country led by a president who is both head of state and head of the government. Ghana's economy is one of the strongest and most diversified in Africa, following a quarter-century of relative stability and good governance.[2] Ghana's growing economic prosperity and democratic political system have made it a regional power in West Africa.[3] Notable firms This list includes notable companies with primary headquarters located in the country.
