

Easter Morning

From the cross, Jesus was taken down,
Wrapped in linen, and placed in the ground.
The stone was closed, the guard was set.
But Jesus wasn't finished yet!

For three days, Jesus had to wait.
Jesus met the devil at hell's gate.
Give me the keys to death and hell,
You cannot hold me here.
For I have paid the price for man,
The third day is finally here.

In the morning, on that third day.
The tomb was empty, the stone rolled away.
Jesus ascended to God above,
Sending us the Holy Spirit, to fill us with power and love.

Dale Carr