

Jesus Will Return

Who knows the day Jesus will return?
The day when the earth and heavens burn.
When fiery wrath splits the sky,
and the great white army rides on high.
Following their King, who is called Faithful and true.

On all white horses he leads them through.
Clothed in a vestry dipped in blood,
His name is called the Word of God.
And from his mouth a two-edged sword,
to smite the nations that denied their Lord.

Upon his vesture and thigh, a name shall be,
written there for all to see.
King of Kings and Lord of Lords, smiting the wicked, and giving the saints rewards.
Prepare yourself for this great day
Enter in while there is still a way.
