

Prayer

Lord; Please help me to use this gift
to help many others know.
These things I write to tell them Lord,
are seeds that I must sow.

The joy I found when I met you,
that spark burst into flame.
It started with a humble task,
of calling on your name.

Lord Jesus; please forgive me,
for the awful things I've done.
And guide me for the rest of time,
until this battle is won.

I know that when I need you Lord,
you'll be there by my side.
And shape me into a righteous man,
in whom the father can take pride.

Brothers and sisters, I must tell you,
where peace and love abound.
Just call upon our Lord's sweet name,
then you'll know what I have found.

Dale F. Carr III