

COMPARISON

As I walk into that winter woods
there's an example there to see.
A message from God the Father,
placed there just for me.
As a believer in a stormy world,
trying to learn how I should be.
There is an example in that winter woods,
it's called the evergreen tree.

Though the rest of the woods lies dormant,
no leaves of food in sight.
That evergreen stands firm and tall,
throughout the day and night.
Providing food and shelter,
for all that seek relief.
These things form a comparison,
at least that's my belief.

I should be an example,
to stand out from all the rest.
No matter what the season,
I should try to do my best.
And when others come to ask me,
about the hope that lies within.
I can feed them from the Bible,
and the words that lie therein.

I can tell them of my Savior,
our dear Lord Jesus Christ.
Who is able to forgive them,
because he paid their price.
His mercy is undying,
forever it shall be.
Imparted to His children,
left here for all to see.
This is what I think of,
when I see that evergreen tree.
