Lunch, on own

Excursion to Glendalough and the Wicklow Mountains. The steep wooded slopes of Glendalough the “valley of the two lakes” harbor one of Ireland’s most atmospheric monastic sites — established in the 6th century. Here we see the Round Tower, Cathedral, St. Kevin’s Cross and Kitchen, and Gatehouse

Continue on to Dublin

Evening dinner included, and overnight

Dublin is Ireland’s capital and its largest, most cosmopolitan city. It wasn’t before the Viking raids of the 9th century that Dublin was fully established. The ‘boom years’ came in the 18th century and the city expanded across the river forming a new Dublin of stately squares, streets and Georgian mansions. Today, with its elegant Georgian streets, gregarious inhabitants and over one thousand years of history, it’s little wonder Dublin is a city of writers

Day 7 Friday, March 27 Dublin (B,D)

Breakfast included at the hotel

Morning panoramic tour of Dublin’s highlights including St. Stephen’s Green, Merrion Square, Liffey Footbridges, Grafton Street, Temple Bar, O’Connell Street, Phoenix Park, and entrance to Trinity College, Ireland’s oldest university. Trinity College contains the Book of Kells, which dates from AD 800, making it one of the oldest books in the world. Also visit (entrance included) Dublin Castle

Lunch, on own

Shared or Evening Concert Performance at The Well in Dublin as part of the American Celebration of Music Concert Series in Ireland

Evening Farewell Dinner included, and overnight

Day 8 Saturday, March 28 Depart for home (B)
