Biography of a woman with terrifying memories of WWII and suffering, who had to face discrimination in from both countries in order to find the Joy of peace and love

Keiko Yamada, from Yokohama, Japan, met & married Frank Hahn from Lima, Ohio, while working under General MacArthur's command in 1951. They came to US to live where she met both acceptance & prejudice & where they raised a family. Keiko is dedicated to promoting peace and has won many awards for her leadership.

Mr. Ryutaro Kawashima, Director (TBS TV, Tokyo, Japan) will be talking about this documentary and doing questions and answers at the end of video presentation

A special thanks to Prof. Itsuko Toyama (Kanamoto), Ph.D. of St. Andrew's University, Osaka, Japan for the helping with the planning and assembly of putting this event together.
