

Regulation Best Interest Disclosures:

Monere Wealth Management Inc. is registered with the Securities & Exchange Commission as an investment adviser that provides investment advisory services. Its affiliate Monere Investments, Inc. is registered broker-dealer with SEC, it is also a member of FINRA and SIPC. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ; it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at: www.investor.gov/CRS which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Conflicts of Interest and other disclosures:

- Some Registered Representatives may be registered with both Monere Wealth Management, Inc. (RIA) and Monere Investments, Inc. (Broker-Dealer).
- We may buy and sell your investment through our own accounts (called "acting as principal") and we may earn a profit on these trades.
- We can buy and sell securities through our broker-dealer which maybe have discounts on execution cost from our clearing firm.
- Some Mutual Fund companies may share part of their administrative cost with our clearing firm which may be passed to Monere. Your advisor may receive a part of this fee as compensation.
- Depending on your choice of Money Market fund selection, Monere may receive a portion of the administrative fee these fund charge and a portion may be paid as compensation to your advisor.
- There may be additional disclosures at your Rep level, if there are any he or she will disclose them to you individually.