

Matthew 25:34-36 Then the king will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’

Family Discussion Topics

Kindness is millions of years old. It has seen us through fire, floods and famine; through wars, depressions, great migrations, and global pandemics. Today, it remains our greatest asset. But how can we be kind in the crises surrounding us?

1. What does being kind look like?
 - A. At home
 - B. At school
 - C. At work
 - D. In public
2. Does it look different or the same in these places?
3. Do random acts of kindness have to be monetary?
4. How do we show Jesus' love to others?
5. How do we show Jesus' love while being safe during the pandemic?

Random Acts of Kindness Ideas:

- pay for someone in the drive through lane behind you
- leave water/gatorade for delivery people
- say hello to workers at the store, with a mask on they can no longer see your smile- fill out those surveys on receipts they can make a difference
- make sidewalk art for your neighborhood

Don't feel safe going out?

Help put your family by doing chores

Cook a meal

Take a moment to talk and really listen

Play a board game together

Dance/play music you know your family members like even if it is not your favorite.

Read aloud stories

Go through old photographs

Write a letter to family or friends

Jesus said, “Whatever you gave to the least of my brothers, you gave to me.” (Matthew 25:40) End your time together with a prayer, giving thanks that your story is part of the big story, Jesus’ story.