The church is in need of a new clavivova (digital piano). The current one needs an expensive repair and Yanda's feel that more repairs are coming. They are giving us a nice discount on a new one that has been tested by some of our pianists. Any donations toward the cost of the piano would be very appreciated.

Do you have a green thumb or enjoy working on landscaping projects? The Prince of Peace Building and Grounds Committee is currently in search of a volunteer/s who would like to assume responsibility for our beautiful landscape. Duties would include seasonal maintenance of the flower beds and managing plans and updates to the surrounding grounds. This might be a great opportunity for a husband and wife team that enjoys outdoor activities such as this.

WHY DOES THE PRIEST KISS THE ALTAR?

You might have noticed that after the priest proceeds in for Mass, he genuflects to the tabernacle and when he reaches the altar, he kisses it, and when Mass concludes, he kisses it again. Do you know why? Here is your answer!

Consecration: The altar is consecrated by a bishop, which sets it apart for divine worship. The kiss serves as a recognition of this special status and the altar's role in the liturgy.

Biblical Roots: The act of kissing as a sign of homage is found in the Bible, where it is associated with submission and respect towards God. This biblical context enriches the understanding of the priest's gesture during Mass.

Symbol of Christ: The altar is not a piece of furniture. It represents Christ Himself, His sacrifice, His body, and His victory. At the beginning of Mass, the priest kisses the altar to greet Christ. At the end of Mass, he kisses it again to take leave of the Lord who has just offered Himself.

Ancient Tradition: In the early Church, altars were built over the tombs of martyrs. To kiss the altar was also to honor those who gave their lives for Christ. That tradition remains. Every kiss acknowledges the communion of saints and the blood that testified to the faith we celebrate.

Connection to Martyrs: Historically, altars were often built over the tombs of martyrs, and the relics of saints are sometimes embedded within them. Kissing the altar can also be seen as an act of reverence for these holy figures, acknowledging their sacrifices for the faith.

As Mass comes to an end, the priest does something many people rarely notice. Before he leaves the sanctuary, he returns to the altar and kisses it again.

This is not repetition. It is completion!

There is also a deeply human meaning. We kiss those we love when we depart, not because they disappear, but because the bond remains. The priest's kiss says, "I am leaving this place, but I remain united to You."

This final kiss teaches the faithful something essential: Mass does not end by walking away from Christ, it ends by carrying Him with us. The altar remains sacred. The presence of Christ remains real. And the mission continues beyond the sanctuary walls.

I hope the next time you see a priest kissing the altar, you will know what it means.

For more, you can read: In Exodus 29:37, In Leviticus 8:15, The Book of Hebrews 13:10, Psalm 118:27.
