God of all that is ancient and new, you called priests to minister in your temple in ancient times. Those priests ministered day and night in worship of you. Bless our priests today who not only minister in our churches, but minister to your people, the living body of Christ in the world. Give them wisdom and courage to continue to say yes to you and your people. We ask this through Jesus, the ultimate high priest who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. Amen.

WHO IS A PRIEST?

PRINCE OF PEACE | PRINCEOFPEACEKEARNEY.COM

Celebrating this Priesthood Sunday, something came to my mind to tell who really a priest is: I might not be able to explain everything about a priest in one page, but I will try:

WHO IS A PRIEST?

A priest is a religious leader authorized to perform the sacred rituals of a faith, acting as a mediator between people and the divine (God). The term "priest" comes from the Greek presbyteros ("elder") and Latin presbyter, and in Christian contexts it often refers to someone ranking below a bishop and above a deacon.

WHO IS A CATHOLIC PRIEST?

A Catholic priest is a man who has received the sacrament of Holy Orders, which empowers him to act in the person of Christ and serve the faithful by guiding, teaching, and administering the sacraments of the Church.

The canon law of the Catholic Church holds that the priesthood is a sacred and perpetual vocational state, not just a profession. Canon law (no 232-264)

HOW DOES ONE BECOME A PRIEST?

Becoming a Catholic priest involves discernment, meeting Church requirements, completing seminary education, and ordination after years of spiritual, academic, and pastoral formation. To pursue the priesthood, a candidate must be a male, baptized, confirmed, and a practicing Catholic, typically at least 25 years old. Candidates must be unmarried, though widowers may be considered after a period of mourning, and divorced men must have an annulment to be eligible. Some Eastern Catholic Churches allow married men to be ordained, but this is rare in the Roman Catholic Church. One can become a priest when he joins the major seminary direct from high school, or after another degree, or after university (at any age one can become a priest).

HOW MANY YEARS DO THEY STUDY TO BECOME A PRIEST?

It depends on the diocese and the country, but the church recommends minimal two years of philosophy and 4 years of theology. Most priests have studied a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a bachelor's degree in theology. In Uganda for example at the level of the university (major seminary) one studies for 8 years and above (3 years of philosophy, 4 years of theology, 1 year of pastoral work and then after ordination to diaconate and after a year ordination to priesthood).

During our formation to the priesthood, we are initiated in the four aspects of formation and life: Human formation, spiritual formation, academic formation and pastoral formation, which helps us to handle the people Christ brings to us. So, priests do not only celebrate Mass and sacraments but they can help in different sectors of life.

ARE PRIESTS HUMAN?

Some people think priests are working machines, but priests are human too, and they need support in living out a thriving priesthood, integrating all aspects of God's human design, i.e., body, mind, and soul. Many priests do not have a salary and surely there is nothing you can pay to satisfy them, most of us receive services from counselors and doctors etc., of which we pay for such services, but imagine getting every service free of charge. Priests offer their time for the Christians and non-

Christians, they do feel hungry although they spend a lot of time helping you and me, many like those in villages of Africa, Latin America, and some do not even have means for transport. Some sleep on empty stomachs, some become exhausted. They need to rest too. Although A priest's role is 24/7 active, because Christ 24/7 was at the service. They get sick and they have their personal challenges which they cannot share with anyone. So, when a priest makes a mistake just understand him anyway.

ARE PRIESTS PERFECT OR LIKE ANGELS? Fr. Mathew Rudolf says, "A priest goes to heaven or a priest goes to hell with a thousand people behind." If our dear priests suffer, Bishops suffer, the lay faithful suffer, the mission of the Church suffers. There has to be a better way to provide support to these men who have sacrificed their lives for Christ and His Church.

WHAT CAN WE DO FOR OUR PRIESTS: Pray for them, visit them, call them, encourage them. Do not discourage them or accuse them a lot for you do not what they go through. Support them, listen to them, advise them, gift them (most of the gifts given to priests they also share with others, some do support their fellows and some support other children and poor within and outside the country. This help comes back to you as a blessing from such people or in another vocation) and lastly send your child in the seminary to become a priest.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIEST: The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that the priest helps the faithful through the ministerial priesthood. A bishop first ordains a man to minor orders, next as a deacon, and then as a priest. Some priests later receive ordination as Catholic bishops. Priests are spiritual leaders who help build up the Church community and provide pastoral care to individuals and families. A priest guides the Church in the name of Christ. Christ is the head of the Church. Ordained men make a lifelong commitment to celibacy and obedience to a bishop or religious superior. They act in the person of Christ (persona Christi), so they do the role Christ did. Celebrating the Passover, and sacrifice of Mass. (Mathew 26:26-28) Roman Catholic priests serve Christ and the Church by administering sacraments, teaching, guiding, and providing pastoral care to the faithful.

LAST REQUEST FROM A PRIEST:

I thank you for your prayers and kindness, thanks for making my priesthood valuable to you and I ask you to pray for me always.

Mary's Journey - Theotokos

Mary's Pregnancy in weeks 28-30.

This week starts Mary's third trimester. During this time, Baby has more neurons than he will ever have again, over 100 billion. He may grow to about four pounds and 16 inches long by 30 weeks.

He will begin to smell through odor molecules in the amniotic fluid. He is sleeping about 65% of the time and may even be dreaming during REM cycles.

Mary may experience nose bleeds, backaches, sciatica and darkened skin called melasma. Most discolorations fade a few months after giving birth. Trying a heating pad, warm bath, supportive pillow or stretching may help with pain.
