Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. (Acts 2:3)

Psalm:

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (Ps 104)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

As a body is one though it has many parts,
and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body,
so also Christ. (1 Cor 12:12)

Gospel:

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Jn 20:21)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Whoever loves me will keep my word," Jesus tells his disciples, "and my Father...will come to him and make our dwelling with him." We know what's at stake. We know what we have to do. So when the Father comes, will He make His dwelling with us?

Observances for the week of June 8, 2025

- Sunday: Pentecost Sunday
Monday: Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church
Wednesday: St. Barnabas, Apostle
Friday: St. Anthony of Padua,
Priest and Doctor of the Church
Saturday: Flag Day
Next Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity; Father's Day

Devotions, Explained!

The practice of praying before meals is Biblical, and in the Gospels, Jesus is shown praying before the Last Supper and other meals. In Laudato Si', Pope Francis urged the faithful "to return to this beautiful and meaningful custom."

Prayer for Pentecost

Holy Spirit of God —
Disturb this room with your presence today, filling us, empowering us, emboldening us. Descend upon us with your gifts, your inspiration, and your promptings. Lead us to where we should go, stirring within us the movement of God.
Amen.

June is traditionally the month for weddings. Although there is only one wedding scheduled in June at Prince of Peace, two of my nieces are getting married. Allison Corcoran will be getting married on June 14 at Holy Ghost church in Denver, Colorado, and Caitlin DeVries will be getting married on June 20 at St. Francis church in Castle Rock, Colorado. They are daughters of my two youngest sisters. I have been blessed to be part of most of my 36 nieces' and nephews' weddings. However, in order to attend I will not be able to be present with the Prince of Peace community. I am happy to be with my nieces, but I am sad to say, after this weekend, I will only have one weekend with you, June 28 and 29. However, I will come back on June 22 in order to concelebrate Mass with Fr. Torpey and attend the farewell party following that Mass.

There will be two more chances for us to have a formal farewell. Saturday, June 28 after the 5 pm Mass, and Sunday, June 29, after the 8 am Mass. I will also celebrate the 10:30 Mass, but as far as I know, there will not be food served after that Mass.

The process of saying goodbye to my Prince of Peace parish family will not be easy. Fr. Scott will also have a difficult time saying goodbye to his two parishes, Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Ord, and Sacred Heart in Burwell.

I learned that I would be most likely moving the Monday after the First Sunday of Lent. Since then, I have been remembering the great times I have had with you all and thanking God! There have been times it has brought me to tears during Mass and I am sure there will be more! There will be some grieving for all of us!

Priests do not marry thus allowing us to be a part of your family. Over the 13 years I have been here, I have celebrated many births with you and baptized your babies. Many of the children here have only known me as their priest. I have watched them grow, heard their confessions, celebrated First Communions and Confirmations. And, yes, I am now beginning to preside at their weddings! I also have had the honor of walking with many of you as you mourn the loss of a loved one. We call this the circle of life!

I will be around many of the weekdays in June, but this is the start of beginning to say goodbye to my dear Prince of Peace family. On July 1, I will begin the process of getting to know the families of two other parishes. They say 13 is an unlucky number, but my 13 years with you have been full of blessings. So, in the days we have left, let us celebrate, remember, and give thanks!

God Bless, Fr. Paul

Could you use a summer refresh? Come away to the silence for a 3 Day Silent Ignatian Retreat. This retreat offers an individualized retreat experience with plenty of time for prayer and rest in the 153 acre forest at the Creighton University Retreat Center in Griswold, IA. Walking with Moms in Need is a nationwide, parish-based initiative to increase support for pregnant and parenting mothers in need. It works to ensure that any woman who finds herself in difficult circumstances, can turn to her local Catholic Church and be connected with the resources she needs. Volunteers walk with moms throughout the motherhood journey, offering them authentic Christian friendship and support. Our parish has put together a brochure to help these moms connect with local area resources. They are available at all the entrances and in the parent emergency kits in all the bathrooms.

Kidney Donor Needed - Father Arul Innaiah, who is the pastor of the Catholic parishes in Crawford and Harrison, Nebraska, has End Stage Renal Disease and needs a kidney transplant. He has been going to dialysis three times a week for more than three years. Since we have two kidneys, we can all donate a kidney to someone in need of a transplant. Father Arul has not been able to travel home to visit his mother since he started dialysis. If you are interested in learning more about donating a kidney to help Father, please call 308.665.5175, or go to nkr.org/MAE825.
