Do you have a green thumb or enjoy working on landscaping projects? The Prince of Peace Building and Grounds Committee is currently in search of a volunteer/s who would like to assume responsibility for our beautiful landscape. Duties would include seasonal maintenance of the flower beds and managing plans and updates to the surrounding grounds. This might be a great opportunity for a husband and wife team that enjoys outdoor activities such as this.

In addition, the committee is also searching for new members as we have several that have recently retired. If either of these opportunities sound interesting to you, please contact the office for further details.

HOW DO I CONFESS A SEXUAL SIN?

As we begin this lent period, one may ask themselves what to confess and how to have a perfect confession. Most times there are some sins which feel strange to say before a priest. Here is a guide on how you can go about them.

Confession is a powerful sacrament of healing, offering God's mercy and grace to those who repent. Among the sins people struggle with, sexual sins can be particularly difficult to confess due to shame or fear. However, God's love is greater than any sin, and He invites us to seek His forgiveness with a sincere heart.

Sexual sins fall under the Sixth and Ninth Commandments: "You shall not commit adultery," and, "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife." These sins involve actions or thoughts that misuse the gift of human sexuality, which God designed for marriage.

Some of the most common sexual sins:

1. Lust: Lust is the disordered desire for sexual pleasure outside of God's plan. It turns people into objects for gratification rather than respecting them as people made in God's image.
2. Pornography: Viewing or consuming pornographic content distorts the purpose of sexuality, promotes impurity, and can lead to addiction, damaging relationships and one's view of love.
3. Masturbation: This act involves seeking sexual pleasure alone, which contradicts the self-giving nature of love that sexuality is meant to express. The Catechism acknowledges factors that may reduce guilt (like habit or immaturity), but it remains a sin.
4. Premarital Sex (Fornication) : Sex outside of marriage goes against God's design for intimacy to be a total self-giving within the sacrament of matrimony. It often leads to emotional and spiritual wounds.
5. Adultery: Being unfaithful to one's spouse violates the sacred bond of marriage and breaks trust, harming families and relationships.
6. Homosexual Acts: While the Church teaches that persons with same-sex attraction must be treated with dignity and love, engaging in homosexual acts is considered sinful because they are not open to life and the complementarity of male and female.
7. Contraception: The use of artificial means to prevent conception separates the unitive and procreative aspects of marital love, contradicting God's plan for sexuality.
8. Prostitution: Selling or buying sexual services reduces the dignity of the person to an object of pleasure, exploiting human weakness.
9. Rape and Sexual Abuse: These gravely sinful acts violate human dignity and cause deep trauma to victims. Justice and reparation must accompany confession in such cases.
10. Impure Thoughts and Desires: Entertaining sexual fantasies or desires that are not directed toward one's spouse in marriage can be sinful when done deliberately.

HOW TO CONFESS SEXUAL SINS? Confessing sexual sins requires sincerity, humility, and trust in God's mercy.

1. Examine Your Conscience Reflect on your thoughts, words, and actions. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal sins you may have forgotten.
2. Be Honest and Sincere: Tell the priest your sins honestly without unnecessary details or excuses. If you struggle with a habitual sin, mention it so the priest can give guidance.
3. Use Clear, Simple Language and). Do not sugarcoat your sin. Rather than vague statements like, "I was impure," specify what sin you committed (e.g., "I watched pornography," "I engaged in premarital sex"). There is no need to go into explicit detail. Mortal sins do not expire.

An unconfessed mortal sin in your soul becomes a weakness that evil can exploit, attacking you with the same habitual sin. This prevents you from moving forward and finding liberation.

4. Express Contrition Be truly sorry for your sins, not just because of guilt but because they offend God and harm your soul.
5. Accept Your Penance: The priest will give you penance, which helps repair the effects of sin. Do it promptly and prayerfully.
6. Trust in God's Mercy: Once the priest grants absolution, believe that you are forgiven. Do not dwell on past sins but move forward in God's grace.
7. Avoid Occasions of Sin: Make concrete efforts to avoid temptations. This may include installing accountability software, setting boundaries in relationships, or deepening your prayer life. Confessing sexual sins may be difficult, but God's mercy is always greater. Approach the sacrament with humility, sincerity, and trust. The grace of confession will strengthen you to live a life of purity and holiness, drawing you closer to God's love.
