PRAYER & WORSHIP

STS. PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES | JUNE 29, 2025

Welcome Fr. Scott!

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Now I know for certain that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people had been expecting."
(Acts 12:11)

Psalm:

The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him. (Ps 34)

Second Reading:

The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly Kingdom. (2 Tm 4:18)

Gospel:

I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven.
Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven;
and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed
in heaven." (Mt 16:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Peter testified to a dangerous and unpopular truth — that Christ was the Messiah. That courage, that trust in God, is the cornerstone of all we believe. Like Peter, we must always bear witness to the truth.

Observances for the week of June 29, 2025

Sunday: Sts Peter and Paul, Apostles
Monday: The First Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church
Tuesday: St. Junípero Serra, Priest
Thursday: St. Thomas, Apostle
Friday: Independence Day (USA)
Saturday: St. Anthony Zaccaria, Priest;
St. Elizabeth of Portugal
Next Sunday: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Devotions, Explained!

A pilgrimage is a journey to a place of spiritual significance undertaken by one who is seeking closeness to Heaven while still on Earth.

Prayer of Pastoral Care

O God,
Bless the souls You have entrusted to our care. As You hear every one of their prayers, help us to hear them, too. Answer their prayer intentions and personal needs through us and our ministry, as we all seek to do Your will.
Amen.

This is officially my last pastor's note to my dear friends at Prince of Peace. It is a farewell but also until we meet again for, we most likely will meet again.

In my 38 years as a priest I have been transferred five times, this will be my sixth time. I have been blessed to have been able to minister to so many wonderful, faithful people in the Diocese of Grand Island. Thanks to Facebook, I am able to keep up with my former parish families. As I said to my sister this past weekend, "Yes, it is difficult to say good-bye! We have become so close! The beautiful thing about being a priest is that if you give your heart to your people, or love them, they will give you their heart back, or love you in return."

Even though the parish of Prince of Peace has existed since 1986, the new building was dedicated August 5, 2011. This building, this church, is a beacon on the hill that has drawn the church of God to worship and praise Him. These past 13 years we have been building our church community to be what it is: a faithful, prayerful, joyful, and welcoming Church. We are Prince of Peace.

We have become a family in Christ. As your pastor, your Father, you have opened your hearts to me. It has given me great joy to have celebrated so many Masses with you. It is especially wonderful to celebrate Mass in our church at Christmas, Holy Week, and Easter.

Over the past months, I have been flooded with great memories of experiences at Prince of Peace. It is such an honor to have been able to administer the sacraments to you. It has been a privilege to be with you not only during the joyful mysteries of your life but also to walk with you during the sorrowful mysteries of your life. I thank you for letting me be a part of your lives.

As with any person, I am far from perfect! I apologize for any time I might have inadvertently offended you. I am truly sorry.

I will treasure the memories of the many baptisms, first communions, confirmations, weddings, and bringing people into the faith at Easter. I remember in prayer all those I walked with as they mourned their loved ones. I have been here long enough to have the privilege of witnessing marriages of couples who were in middle school when I arrived.

Thank you seems inadequate, but thank you for the most wonderful 13 years any priest could have wanted.

On this the feast of Saints Peter and Paul, I share from 2 Timothy 4, "The time of my departure is at hand. I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." Now I will share my people with Fr. Scott Harter. He will be your new pastor, July 1, 2025.

It will be a new chapter in the life of Prince of Peace. Please welcome him with open arms. Be the people that I know you are: loving, caring and welcoming! May God bless you always, you will be in heart and in my prayer! Love, Fr. Paul Colling, faithful friend and pastor since July 1, 2011.

The Feast of the birth of Saint John the Baptist:

Only three birthdays are celebrated on the Church's liturgical calendar, the Nativity of Our Lord (December 25), the Nativity of His Mother (September 8), and the Nativity of His forerunner, John the Baptist, on June 24. St. John the Baptist was set apart from the womb to prepare the way of the Lord and was a significant figure connected to the Incarnation and the Redemption. The Church honors him because of his role in preparing the way for Christ.

In John 3:30, John the Baptist says, "I must decrease so he may increase." The first falls close to the summer solstice, which was Friday, June 20th. Every day after that the time of sun light decreases until the winter solstice that is near December 25th, when we celebrate the birth of Jesus, the light of the world.

I hope and pray you have a wonderful summer, and if you happen to be recreating near Ord or Burwell, please join us for Mass, or stop by and say hi.

STROKE SCAN PLUS

EVERY 40 SECONDS, SOMEONE IN THE U.S. IS HAVING A STROKE!

Stroke Scan Plus and Prince of Peace Catholic Church will be hosting lifesaving, wellness ultrasound screenings on Saturday, July 19th. It is important to perform preventive maintenance for ourselves yearly. Do you have high blood pressure or high cholesterol, diabetes, or a family history of heart disease, stroke, abdominal aneurysm, or internal cancers? If so, do not miss this opportunity for early detection of a possibly serious disease. These screenings are typically NOT performed at your annual check-up, and insurance companies may not pay for them unless you are symptomatic. Stroke Scan Plus will be offering them to you for $169 for all 7 combined ultrasound screenings (Stroke, AAA, Thyroid, Liver, Kidneys, & Gallbladder). Blood testing will incur an additional cost. Insurance is NOT necessary, and appointments are limited. Stroke Scan will be available at the church for you to register on on Saturday, July 12th - Sunday, July 13th, or please call 832-437-7355 to schedule an appointment today for you or a loved one. The screenings will take place in/at the Prince of Peace Catholic Church. Prevention is your key to quality health! www.strokescan.com.

Walking with Moms in Need is a nationwide, parish-based initiative to increase support for pregnant and parenting mothers in need. It works to ensure that any woman who finds herself in difficult circumstances, can turn to her local Catholic Church and be connected with the resources she needs. Volunteers walk with moms throughout the motherhood journey, offering them authentic Christian friendship and support. Our parish has put together a brochure to help these moms connect with local area resources. They are available at all the entrances and in the parent emergency kits in all the bathrooms.
