PRINCE OF PEACE CATHOLIC CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

United in the sacraments as the Body of Christ, we the members of Prince of Peace Catholic Parish extend the welcoming arms of Jesus, opening the world to God's presence through works of love, hospitality, mercy and prayer.

Counting our Blessings: Pillars of Prince of Peace

The $2.3 million debt is now $88,500.00. With the completed collection of current pledges at the end of June the debt will be $75,000. This is incredible! There are $17,202.68 Pledged. August 5th, 2021 will be our 10th anniversary of dedicating this church. Those of us who have pledged could pay it forward that we could debt free. Also, many parishioners have made generous contributions. We can be grateful for all we have done thus far. This past year has been a challenging year for all of us, some worse than others. Some people have been dramatically challenged this past year. Others, like myself, haven't be adversely affected financially. Since we have not be able to participate in entertainment outside of our home, there are some who have discovered that they have more spendable income. Thus as a way of giving thanks to the Lord for all our blessings, I invite all who are able to make a generous donation to the debt. Let's count our blessings!

March 13-14—2021

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Opening: Christ in Me Arise

Refrain: Christ in me arise and dispel all the darkness. Christ in me arise with your power and your strength. Christ in me pour out your blessing and healing. Christ in me arise and I shall rise with you.

1. Be now my vision; open these eyes, showing me all that I must see. Onward to the kingdom, you are the way. Arise in me and I shall rise with you.

2. Be now my footsteps, leading the way, taking me where I must go. Onward to the kingdom, you are the way. Arise in me and I shall rise with you.

Text : Trevor Thomson, n. 1971. Music: Trevor Thomson; harm. By Rick Moldin, b. 1966. Text and music: © 2008, 2010, Trevor Thomson. Published by Spirit & Song, a division of OCP.

Offertory: In Christ Alone

1. In Christ alone my hope is found, he is my light, my strength, my song; this cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease. My comforter, my all in all, here in the love of Christ I stand.

2. In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe! This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones he came to save. Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied. For every sin on him was laid; here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground his body lay, light of the world, by darkness slain; then, bursting forth in glorious day, up from the grave he rose again! And as he stands in victory, sin's curse has lost its grip on me; for I am his and he is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death, this is the power of Christ in me; from life's first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny. No power of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from his hand; till he returns or calls me home, here in the power of Christ I'll stand!

Communion: Show Us Your Mercy

Refrain: In times of trouble, God, come to our aid. Show us your mercy come save! In times of trouble, God, come to our aid. Show us your mercy, come save!

1. We live secure in the shelter of God, safe in the fold of God's wings. We will proclaim the greatness of God, the rock of salvation God brings.

2. Lost and afraid, we're never alone, God watches over our lives. Walking our path and lighting our way, guarding us day and by night.

3. All of our lives we look to our God. We will lie safe in God's care. God is our rock. In God we can trust all of our troubles to bear.

Text: Based on Psalm 91; Mark Friedman, b.1952. Music: Mark Friedman. Text and music© 1996, 1998 Mark Friedman. Published by OCP.

Worthy is the Lamb

Refrain: Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive honor and glory. Worthy are the ones who believe to receive the goodness of God.

1. Worthy are you, O Pascal Lamb. Wisdom and strength belong now to you, You laid down your life and died upon the cross; we've become a people of hope.

2. Worthy are you, O Bread of Life. Salvation and joy belong now to us. By conquering death and rising to new life, we've become a people of praise.

Text: Based on Revelation 5:9-14; Ricky Manalo, CSP, b.1965. Music: Ricky Manalo, CSP. Text and music © 1997, Ricky Manalo, CSP. Published by Spirit & Song, a division of OCP.

Dismissal: Healing River of the Spirit

1. Healing river of the Spirit, bathe the wounds that living brings. Plunge our pain, our sin, our sadness deep beneath your sacred springs. Weary from the restless searching that has lured us from your side, we discover in your presence peace the world cannot provide.

2. Well spring of the healing Spirit, stream that flows to bring release, as we gain ourselves our senses, may our lives reflect your peace. Grateful for the flood that heals us, may your church enact your grace. As we meet both friend and stranger, may we see our Savior's face.

3. Living stream that heals the nations, make us channels of your power. All the world is torn by conflict; wars are raging at this hour. Saving Spirit, move among us, guide our winding human course, till we find our way together, flowing homeward to our Source.

March 13-14—2021

Fourth Sunday of Lent

First Reading: 2 Chronicles 36:14-16,19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem. Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah: "Until the land has retrieved its lost Sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled." In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing: "Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

Responsorial —Psalm 137:1-6

Let me tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:4-10

Brothers and sisters: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved—, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Gospel: John 3:14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true
God,
Begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven.
And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
And became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
Who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
And I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
And the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O
Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

A time to mourn

A time to Mourn: A year ago, March 18, 2020, we were asked to change our lives dramatically. Unless we were an essential worker, we were asked to stay home and only go out for necessities. Many businesses closed. The travel and hospitality industry was hit hard; people canceled trips, conventions, and family gatherings. Grandparents were not able to see their grandchildren. Parents couldn't have their family visit their newborn. The entertainment industry shut down; no movies, no live concerts, no sports. Teachers/professors taught through on-line classes. Graduations were postponed or done on-line. Although churches were able to be open for private prayer we were not able to celebrate Mass. In the beginning of this great lock down, funerals and weddings were limited to 10 people. And then slowly, like a plague, the coronavirus crept into our community. The hospitals began to fill up and the death toll began to rise. Indeed, it is a time to mourn.

To help us grieve for this past year there will be purple cards available at all the doors of the church for you to take home and write about your losses. You may take more than one card. This can be done anonymously or you may sign your name. You may write about your loss or you may write a prayer. Please bring them back to the church and place in the wicker basket near the altar. Fr. Paul will pray for the losses during the Lenten season especially on Palm Sunday and Good Friday.

In addition, on Thursday evening, March 18, at 6:30 pm Fr. Paul Colling will lead evening prayer with benediction. There will be an opportunity for mourning our losses.

At the Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 3, the cards will be placed in the Easter fire as a prayer offering to God.

On Easter Sunday new cards will be available to write our surprises from last year and our hopes for the rest of this year.

Fr. Paul Colling
