who was baptized at Prince of Peace

Thank you to everyone who supported the Prince of Peace annual fundraiser!

Our thanks to the donors of the drawing prizes, the quilt makers, and all other donors. Thank you to the volunteers who gave of their time and talents to either be a helper at the event or to bake, make, plant a seed and watch it grow in actual plants for God's garden, or in mentoring a young person who came to help that day! We thank the committee chairs who gave many months, weeks, days and hours in planning this event and making it successful for the church and the surrounding community. We thank all those who prayed for our event to be what God wanted in these rebuilding times of "post covid" and being able to come together to share a meal, a laugh, have some fun and enjoy the day! To all those who bought tickets for the drawing, quilt, meal, bid on silent auction items, played games, bought a baked good or a plant...we appreciate you! We ask that you support and give of your time and talents next year as we pass the "SpringFest torch" on, to Jason & Tiffany Shuda who have so generously offered to be the chairs for next year's SpringFest on Sunday, April 23rd, 2023.

Blessings,
Mike & Cathy Labun

Kearney Packathon for Haiti

The community of Kearney will be holding a very important event called a Packathon on April 23rd. On Saturday from 9-11 and 12-2 at the multi-purpose room at Kearney Catholic High School where several hundred people will get together for a couple of hours and pack meals consisting of rice, dried beans, dried vegetables, and a highly nutritious blend of vitamins and chicken flavor. These meals are then packaged and shipped to Hôpital Sacre Coeur in Milot, Haiti to be distributed to those most in need of some lifesaving aid. The cost of each meal is $0.35 which includes all the ingredients and shipping cost to Haiti.

You can register as a volunteer and/or donate at the following:

<https://give.classy.org/kearneypackathon2022>

Notes from the KCHS Office

Don't forget to register your current 5th graders for the 2022-2023 school year!

Registration form is at the end of the newsletter and can be turned into the school office.

Current KCHS students do not need to register for next year.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month.

With so many concerns facing our world today, war, political division, social unrest, and economic instability it can be challenging to stay alert to the signs of abuse and the needs of those in need of healing. It is imperative that we, as Church, continue to share a message of hope and healing.

Annual Mass for Healing and Reparation

Bishop Hanefeldt will be celebrating the Annual Mass for Healing and Reparation April 19, 2022, at 5:15 pm. More information about this event, including the worship guide and livestream links will be available at:

Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5: 6B-8

John 20:1-9

It is finally Easter- the culmination of our liturgical year - our cause for celebration! Yet it seems difficult to imagine celebrating at this time of crisis in our Church and in our world. We are reminded in the second reading(s) this Easter to, "think of what is above, not of what is on earth." To "clear out the old yeast...the yeast of malice and wickedness" and to celebrate the feast "with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth." Our call this Easter is not to forget, ignore, or minimize the evil that has plagued our Church and harmed so many – our call is to cleanse and purify. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus calls us to begin anew in sincerity and truth. To "think of what is above," is not to abandon those seeking justice and longing for healing, nor to blindly trust those who have caused harm; but rather to leave all that burdens us in the tomb and place our hope in the new life of resurrection in Christ!

Pastor's Notes

© J.S. Falch et al.

Alleluia, Alleluia, He has Risen from the Dead! Christ has Risen as He said. Easter is here!

The Triduum and the Easter Masses went so well. Congratulations to Courtnei Langley who was baptized and received in the Church.

Congratulations to those who were received into the church: Abigail Campbell, Amy Downing, Brice Krohn, and Darren Wiens. We welcome you with open arms!

Liturgy means the work of the people. Our Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil would not have been so wonderful without the hard work of many people behind the scenes! Whichever Mass or liturgy you attended, it is my belief that you must have found them to have been so spiritual and uplifting! So again, I thank all who had a part in these liturgies and Masses. So a heartfelt thanks to the following: the liturgy and decorating committee, all who helped with music under the direction of Kathy Niedbalski, the MC's, servers, the lectors, hospitality, Eucharistic ministers, the candidates for confirmation, and all who helped in any way with the liturgies. A special thanks to Bill Gilbreath, Kathy White, P.J. O'Neill, the RCIA team and the staff. Thank you one and all!

So much has happened this past forty days of Lent and the three days of the Triduum. We might be like St. Thomas and have our doubts. This is normal. It is part of our journey of faith. Our answers to our questions will come when we take them to prayer. Hopefully we established some habits during lent that will carry us through the Easter Season. Prayer and meditation with the Lord will not only help us survive whatever the world throws at us, but help us to thrive.

Pope Francis is helping us see the face of the Risen Lord, the Christ in the world. He is calling us to reach out to our sisters and brothers who have drifted away from the faith. We can do this by continuing to live our Lenten promises of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. As St. Francis once said, "Preach the Gospel every day, and if necessary use a few words."

May you have a joyful Easter season! May you enjoy the love of God today and every day. He is Risen! Alleluia, Alleluia.
