The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday). But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He asked them, ‘Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?’”-Mark 4:40

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him throughout the day, in all circumstances.

Welcome

Father,
we celebrate our dad today.
we celebrate the special person he is.

We celebrate his love
for us and our love for him.

He is our friend,
our teller of good stories,
a listener to our problems,
and a helper in times of trouble.

Help us to show him
today and every day
how special he is and how much we love him

Help us to be as loving as he is.

Help him to continue to be the best dad he can be.

We ask this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

“Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community” (Fratelli tutti, 116).

June 22 to July 4, 2014 the US Catholic Conference of Bishops have call us to participate in The Fortnight for Freedom. In our Liturgical calendar we remember and celebrate great martyrs who remained faithful to God and Church in the face of persecutions by political powers such as St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome.

The theme of this year’s Fortnight will focus on the Freedom to serve the poor and vulnerable in accord with human dignity and the Church’s teaching. Throughout these days the Bishops are asking us to pray, reflect and act on the following issues:

Pray-Reflect-Act

Adoption and Foster Care

Catholic Social Service in the Pandemic

The Equality Act

Church Vandalism

Catholics in Nicaragua

Conscience Rights for Healthcare Workers

Pope Francis’ Solidarity with Beleaguered Christians in Iraq

Free Speech

The Bishops invite us to pray and fast for our Religious Freedom. For more information please see the USCCB website: www.usccb.org

RELIGIOUS
WEEK

First graders come together in prayer with their leader Totus Tuus.

Please consider serving our parish as a lay minister. All ministries contribute to the Mass.

Little Dresses for Haiti

Get your machines ready and fabric collected!

Join us at Prince of Peace church to sew on July 21st and 22nd, 9am-12pm, 1-4pm, and 5-8pm. Hopefully we can gather and share our talents with those little kids in Haiti. We need all ages and skill levels, cutting, sewing, bagging, etc. This is such a fantastic community building project!

Pastor's Notes

Happy Father's Day! May God bless all Fathers! The vocation of fatherhood is so important and we can look to St. Joseph as a model. My hope is that all Fathers can be a joint example of prayer in and for the family. Please accept this blessing: "God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen." Prayer Source: Book of Blessings, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, Minnesota, 1989.

Totus Tuus was great success! Next week Amy Lowe, our pre-school to 5th grade religious formation coordinator, and Stephen Friesell 7-12 religious formation coordinator and youth minister will share the good news. Thank you to both of them and especially the team, Rose Sullivan, Noah Huddleson, Trevor Fisher, and Maddie Sutton. Thank you parents for supporting our youth in knowing and loving Jesus.

Summer officially starts June 20. We are so grateful for the summertime especially this year. This is our opportunity to enjoy the beauty of God's creation. Sunday is the day many of us reserve for a day of rest. Our need to worship of God doesn't not stop when the weather is more inviting. We need our church community and our church community needs us. As we are traveling about during the summer's months, it can be easy to skip Mass. As we are called by God to "keep Holy the Sabbath." you can find Mass by looking at <https://masstimes.org/>. It might be challenging but well worth your time to celebrate your Catholic faith with your sisters and brothers; praising God in song, hearing God's word and receiving the most Holy Eucharist.

Please help us continue to have dynamic Masses by signing up for ministries. If for whatever reason you are unable to attend the Mass for which you are scheduled, please find a substitute. If you are signed up, it is very important that you check in so that the coordinator of the Mass will know you are here and not find someone else to do your ministry. Your active participation in the ministries and in the Mass give glory to God, to His Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit. I pray you have a prayerfully, renewing, safe summer.

One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters.

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.
