Catholic Community Food Pantry

The Lord is teaching us new ways during this pandemic. Let us always give thanks and praise to God for what we have been given and for what we share. Thanks to all of you who give for the poor! When our pantry does reopen, we will just be distributing food as we continue working with the Jubilee Center to help with rent and utility needs. We thank God, who continues to bless us and keep us safe.

July 11/12, 2020 ~ 15th Sunday—Ordinary Time

Gathering—Christ Be Our Light

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you. Make us your own,
Your holy people, light for the world to see.

Refrain: Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness. Christ, be our light!
Shine in your church gathered today.

2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair. Your word alone
Has power to save us. Make us your living voice.

3. Longing for food, many are hungry.
Longing for water, many still thirst. Make us your bread, Broken for others, shared until all are fed.

Text and music: Bernadette Farrell, b.1957, ©1993, Bernadette Farrell. Published by OCP.

Offertory—Parable

1. To everything there is a season; a time to be born and a time to die. A time to plant and a time for harvest; a time to meet and a time to part.
A sower went out to sow the seed. Some of it fell upon the path, some fell on shallow rocky soil, and some among choking thorns.

2. To everything there is a season; a time to be born and a time to die. A time to speak and a time for silence; a time to wound and a time to heal.
Nothing can grow in barren soil; briars and ravens take their toll; still there is grain a hundredfold, from seed that took root and grew.

3. To everything there is a season; a time to be born and a time to die. A time for joy and a time for grieving; a time to seek and a time to lose.
God's word is like the farmer's seed, rooted in joyful, loving hearts, growing like grain in fertile ground, a harvest that overflows.

Communion—Bread for the World

Refrain: Bread for the world: a world of hunger.
Wine for all peoples: people who thirst.
May we who eat be bread for others.
May we who drink pour out our love.

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
Where we divide your people you are waiting there
On bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps. Where we are tired and weary, you are waiting there
To be the way which beckons us beyond despair.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and powerful have become the least.
Where we survive on others in our human greed,
You walk among us begging for your every need.

Taste and See

Refrain: Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord. O taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.

Text: Based on Psalm 34:9a,2-3,4-5,10; James E. Moore Jr. Music: James E. Moore, Jr. Text and music © 1983, GIA Publications, Inc.

Dismissal—Give Thanks to the Lord

1. Give thanks to the Lord who does wondrous deeds, who masters the winds and the raging seas, whose love is forever, whose love is forever, whose love is forevermore!

2. Give thanks to the God who has blessed our land, who guards every step with a mighty hand, whose love is forever, whose love is forever, whose love is forevermore!

3. O, bless the Lord for every gift that comes to grace our way. And praise the God of faithfulness, who comes to light our day.

4. Give thanks to the God of the summer rains, who spreads out the hills and the golden plains, whose love is forever, whose love is forever, whose love is forevermore!

July 11/12, 2020

15th Sunday - Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the LORD: Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

Responsorial —Psalm 65

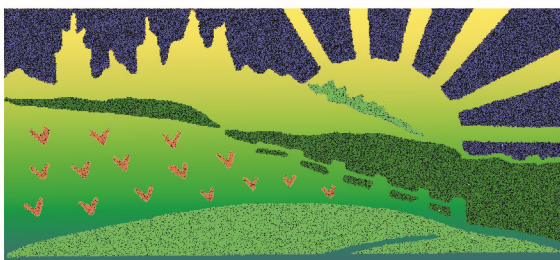

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters: I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
Have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
Begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven.
And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
And became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
And I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
And the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

You have crowned the year
with your bounty, and your paths overflow
with a rich harvest.
— Psalm 65:12

PASTOR'S NOTE

Summer is finally here! Hopefully all had a wonderful and safe Fourth of July weekend. Even though we are only able to use every other pew, we had good attendance at the Masses. Visitors often tell me what a welcoming church we have and such great liturgies too!

This weekend the Gospels speak of seeds that are sown to produce a great yield. Are you aware that our parish is now at 984 registered families? We can be grateful for all those who have gone before us and planted those seeds of faith. Yet, we should also be thankful for the continuing prayer and participation of those who are currently active members. Praise God!

Bill Gilbreath has served on the Pastoral Parish Council for two terms. We are grateful for his faithful service. He was a wise and sage member of the council. Although he is no longer serving as a council member, he and his wife, Shirley, are active in other areas of service for the church. Thank you Bill!

Kim O'Conner finished the term for a member who moved out of town. She has agreed to serve for the next three years as a member of the council.

This Sunday, July 12, at the end of the 10:30 am Mass, we will pray as a parish for a new member for the Pastoral Parish Council. Rather than vote, we put the names of those nominated into a basket. Then as in Acts 1:12-26 when Matthias was chosen as a new disciple by lot, so one name will be pulled from the basket to fill the seat previously held by Bill. Our candidates this year are Clay Taylor and John Kinginsmith.

As we continue to learn how to live life with the COVID-19, let us let Christian charity be first and foremost in our minds. There are many opinions on what should or should not be done in public settings. At Prince of Peace, we are required to follow the guidelines put out by Governor Ricket's office. Please be patient with the process.

The Mass on Wednesday evenings is for those who might have health compromising situations or feel more comfortable with everyone wearing masks. Even though the other Masses do not require masks, it is highly suggested that when one is not able to social distance that a mask be worn. I appreciate it when you wear a mask as you go to communion. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding. Let us keep each other in prayer.

THE DISPENSATION FROM SUNDAY MASS AND HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION REMAINS IN FORCE

(you are not obligated to attend Mass)

The Mass will still be available for praying/viewing on the parish website, the YouTube parish channel and Facebook.

Please stay home if you are sick, have a fever, are in the health-risk category, care for someone who is sick or vulnerable or has been exposed to COVID-19. Gathering in a public space, including our church, still poses a risk of acquiring or transmitting the virus..

Procedures For Attending Mass

- ◆ Everyone is expected to wear a mask (masks are available for you at the doors if you don’t have one). Several times in his directives, the Bishop encourages those attending Mass to wear masks. It is our expectation that you follow his encouragement.
- ◆ The restrooms are available for you at your own risk. We ask that only one person or one adult & child go at a time. Please use the restroom before you come to church.
- ◆ Use the 6-foot distancing rule; every other pew is used. The pews are marked to allow you to visualize the 6 foot sections.
- ◆ There are baskets near the doors for your offering, since we won’t pass the offering basket, or you may take advantage of the on-line giving.
- ◆ If you choose to hold hands during the Our Father, you may do so only with your family.
- ◆ The sign of Peace will be done only with your family. You may give a symbol of peace or wave to those around you if you choose.
- ◆ Communion will be distributed in the hand.

After 34 years as Principal at KCHS, please join us in celebrating Mr. Terry Torson. Retirement Reception & Open House will be Saturday, July 18th from 8:30-11:30 AM at Kearney Catholic High School, 110 E 35th St.
