Prince of Peace Catholic Community Food Pantry

In June, 48 families came to the pantry with food needs, feeding 187 of their family members. Three utility bills were paid totaling $298.27. Food and other items for the pantry were purchased for $889.23. Young families needing help keeping up with inflation this summer can use the Summer Food Program that started the 6th of June. There are also 5 schools with volunteers serving breakfast and lunch everyday Monday thru Friday. Thank you all for the great support we receive at the pantry.

Hello, my name is Jessie Daake. After spending the last four years at UNK, I've decided to return to the college campus to serve college students as a missionary with FOCUS, the Fellowship of Catholic University Students. In today's world we are seeing many leaving their faith, and one of the most important times to be reaching those leaving is during their time in college.

This fall, I will be serving at the Colorado School of Mines. However, before I can go to campus, I have been asked to fundraise 100% of my mission budget. In doing so I have the opportunity to invite you to join this mission with me through your financial support!

If you or anyone you know might be interested in hearing more about this mission, please reach out to me! You can call or text me at 308-293-1608 or send me an email at jessie.daake@focus.org.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Draw near to your servants, O Lord,
and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

We have an excellent opportunity to stand up for life in the public arena. Volunteers are needed to help the Nebraska Right to Life at their State Fair Booth in Grand Island from Aug 26-Sep 05. Here is the link to schedule a period of time at the booth.

Diocesan Vocation Summit

August 5th • 9:00am-3:30pm • Kearney

Bishop Hanefeldt has challenged our diocese to "Re-Ignite a Culture of Vocations." In response, we've created a comprehensive plan and will kickoff new efforts at a Vocation Summit. All in the diocese are invited, especially parish leaders and educators. Speakers include Fr. Michael Pratt of the Diocese of Tulsa and Sam Alzheimer from Vianney Vocations. They will focus on how to help young people see the beauty of Christian marriage, priesthood, and religious life. Participants will gain new enthusiasm, and receive new tools and resources for fostering vocations in your school and parish. Event is free and lunch is provided.

Info and registration at gidiocese.org.

Pastor's Note: We are well into the lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer. Summer is when many of us take time out to recreate, relax, and go on vacation. Soon school will start, and people are striving to take a vacation. If we are not careful, our vacations can be just as busy as a regular workweek!

It is important that we take digestible helpings of life and fun. One way of doing this is being present in the moment. Instead of thinking of what is next, savor the moment, whether that be breakfast by the lake or in the back yard, or after a fun day in an amusement park, taking time to rest and maybe sharing with the family your favorite part of the day. There are many other creative ways to recharge your batteries. The danger is trying to put too much in one day.

Last weekend I spoke about our need for prayer. As Catholics, we must be careful not to take a vacation from prayer. Prayer is our connection to the source of grace that renews and energizes us.

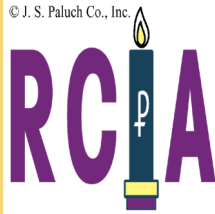

Our major prayer is Sunday Mass! It is very easy to find out where Sunday Mass is being celebrated with resources such as www.masstimes.org. It can be enjoyable seeing different churches, experiencing the music, the sermon, and the congregation.

You could start the drive to your destination with a little prayer. If it is a long drive you could pray a rosary or listen to spiritual music. If you have little ones you could make a game of naming the books of the Bible, or reviewing the Ten Commandments. A custom in my family was to bless ourselves when we drove by a Catholic church. I am sure you have your own, and if not, why not start today. Let's not take a vacation from our prayer life.

Going on the pilgrimage to Poland was a renewing time for me. Not only did we get to see many holy shrines that St. Pope John Paul II visited and his home church, we were also able to meet and share our faith with other Catholics, as well as non-Catholics, from across the United States. Many times, the pilgrims asked me if parishioners were returning after the COVID lock down. Many of them told me that their Mass attendance has not been the same. It gives me great joy to share that the Mass attendance at Prince of Peace is higher than normal for summer time. We are also gaining new parishioners! This is all great news!

However, there are some of our parishioners who have not returned to Mass. Please be a catalyst in helping fill the pews at Prince of Peace by bring a friend or neighbor to Mass. Oh, that our church would be a destination for Catholics to find the Prince of Peace, Jesus!

LAY MINISTER TRAINING SUNDAY, AUGUST 21ST AFTER THE 10:30 AM MASS

Our church is a vibrant and growing parish! However, as the church fills up the lay minister positions remain empty. Lay ministers are the greeters, Eucharistic Ministers, Homebound Eucharistic Ministers, sound, lector, sacristan, and coordinator. Currently, Prince of Peace has 194 active lay ministers. In the month of July, our church had 330 lay minister spots to be filled. In addition to lay minister volunteers, our music ministry is also seeking parishioners who would like to share their musical talents with the church. If you are interested in learning more, please plan to attend a "one-stop shop" for ministry training! Sunday, August 21st after the 10:30 Mass, a sandwich lunch will be served, followed by a training class for servers, sound, Eucharist Ministers, Eucharist Ministers to Homebound, greeters, lectors, and musicians.

Lunch and training combined should only last 60-90 minutes. Please RSVP to the church office (308) 236-9171 or Tiffany at volunteers@kearneyprinceofpeace.org. May God bless you richly for your service of Him and His church!
