Mass Intentions

Mass intentions are filling up quickly! We are completely full for the rest of this year and are now scheduling all mass intentions into next year. If you are wanting a certain day for someone, please contact the office soon to make sure that day is available. If you are wanting to schedule for this year, Fr. O'Brien will celebrate Mass at his home or Friday's at the hospital.

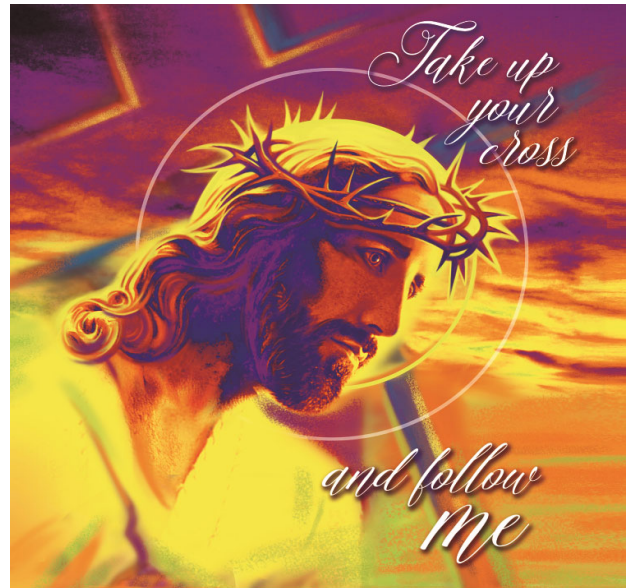

Sarah Hart Concert

Catholic recording artist Sarah Hart will be featured in an evening concert at Prince of Peace Catholic Church on Sunday, September 26th at 7pm. Sarah is a prolific songwriter and a dynamic and energetic worship leader. Many of her songs appear in the Oregon Catholic Press hymnals. This event is open to all, with a freewill offering opportunity available to those who wish to help with the cost of the event.

FORMED: like Netflix for Catholics

It's FREE for everyone in our parish! In the midst of a busy culture, people everywhere are turning to formed.org and finding the peace and joy that can only come from God. You can stream hundreds of Catholic films, life-changing talks, and dramatic stories of the saints. The parish pays for this account and all you have to do is follow the link below and set up your own free profile:

Phase II is Moving Forward

Bishop Hanefeldt has given us permission to move forward with Phase II of Prince of Peace expansion. We will begin with a feasibility study to continue to develop the final plans. The Parish Council and the Finance Council, have been informed of our progress. It is exciting to move forward. More to come...stay tuned!

WASHINGTON – The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has launched a new initiative today aimed at addressing polarization in society. Based on Pope Francis’ call in his encyclical, Fratelli Tutti for “a better kind of politics, one truly at the service of the common good” (no. 154), the new initiative, Civilize It: A Better Kind of Politics asks Catholics to respond to this invitation with charity, clarity, and creativity.

The initiative, which many dioceses throughout the country will be participating in locally, will aid efforts of evangelization to shine the light of our faith on the often challenging area of politics. At CivilizeIt.org, participants can take a pledge and access supporting materials including an examination of conscience, short reflections, prayers, and a guide that will empower individuals, families, and communities to be bridge builders across perspectives. Based on chapters 5 and 6 of Fratelli Tutti and on other reflections by the Holy Father, the materials aim to help Catholics and others of good will to cultivate a culture of encounter, root perspectives in truth, justice and solidarity, and seek collaborative action for the common good.

Archbishop Paul S. Coakley of Oklahoma City, and chairman of the USCCB’s Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development reflected on the importance of the initiative at this time:

“Civilize It: A Better Kind of Politics aims to equip Catholics to address the division and polarization in society that are at times also reflected in the Church. Such division among the faithful compromises the Church’s ability to effectively witness to the life and dignity of the human person in the family, parish, workplace, and political sphere.

In Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis offers a different way forward based on Gospel values, justice and truth. My hope is that this initiative will assist all of us as we seek to ‘become neighbors to all,’ as the Holy Father calls us to do, and “take up the challenges of encounter, dialogue, truth-seeking, and creative problem-solving, in order that all Catholics can work together for the common good.”

More information on the initiative as well as the pledge, resources, and other tools may be found on CivilizeIt.org.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults):
 Have you been thinking about becoming Catholic?
 Tuesday, September 21st, there will be an informational gathering night to share with you what this journey of faith would look like. If you are an adult who is not baptized or a baptized adult of another Christian tradition, this is where you start the process to inquire what it takes to become fully initiated in the Catholic church. For more
