Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life. Help us to cherish and protect this gift, even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering.

Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.

Grant us the humility to accept help when we are in need, and teach us to be merciful to all.

Through our words and actions, may others encounter the outstretched hands of Your mercy.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Every Life is Worth Living, © 2015, United States Conference of Catholic

May those who struggle to find meaning in their lives find hope and comfort in Christ.

Since 1973, the Catholic Church in the United States has observed October as "Respect Life Month." This year, Bishop Michael F. Burbidge of Arlington, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Pro-Life Activities invites Catholics to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Respect Life Month by embracing "radical solidarity" with women facing difficult or challenging pregnancies. Please take the time to read the bulletin insert by Bishop Burbidge on Living Radical Solidarity!

Susan Wheeler is our Respect Life coordinator. She is assisted not only by her husband Joseph but also Helen and Marc Albrecht. There are others on their team who also assist them.

Mike Kube and Cheryl Jones are the Diocesan coordinators of the Pro-life office for the Grand Island Diocese. They keep us updated on the latest information on issues relating to Pro-life.

This year we are offering two days of adoration for life. We consider life to begin from the moment of conception to natural death. This entails that not only do we assist parents in their pregnancy but also after their child's birth. One way we do this is through a program called "Walking with Moms in Need." Susan, along with a dynamic team, created one of the first "Walking with Moms in Need" brochure. See this link to view an electronic version: <https://princeofpeacekearney.com/walking-with-moms>

As part of the Parish Eucharistic Revival, I have started having evening prayer, concluding with Benediction, on the eve of the first Friday of each month. However, this month I will do this on October 12th beginning at 5:30 pm. During Benediction, the priest or deacon reposes the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle. Therefore, this half-hour of prayer will be in the main body of the church. Since Thursday's adoration normally does not conclude until Midnight, Deacon Tom or I will then expose the Blessed Sacrament in the Marian Chapel to accommodate those who come between Benediction and Midnight.

As I wrote in last week's bulletin, "Furthermore, the sacred species are reserved after Mass principally so that the faithful who cannot be present at Mass, above all the sick and those advanced in age, may be united by sacramental Communion to Christ and his Sacrifice which is offered in the Mass. In addition, this reservation also permits the practice of adoring this great Sacrament and offering it the worship due to God. Accordingly, forms of adoration that are not only private but also public and communitarian in nature, as established or approved by the Church herself, and promoted." S. Congregation for Divine Worship, Decree, Eucharistiae sacramentum, 21 June 1973: AAS 65 (1973) 610.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament begins with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament (i.e., consecrated Host) in a monstrance or ostensorium set upon the altar. During adoration, prayers such as the divine office, stations of the cross, the rosary or other prayers may be celebrated. The liturgy includes singing the ancient Latin hymns written by St. Thomas Aquinas, O Salutaris Hostia and Tantum Ergo, followed by the benediction proper. The celebrant holds the monstrance wearing a humeral veil covering his shoulders, arms and hands, and then blesses the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament by tracing the sign of the cross with the monstrance held steadily upright before him. The liturgy concludes with the Divine Praises and most often the hymn "Holy God We Praise Thy Name" is sung.

Many people have never experienced adoration or benediction. I encourage you to attend October 12th at 5:30 pm.
