SERRA FOR PRIESTLY & RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

Jesus commanded us to pray for vocations with his words, "Pray, therefore, the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest field" (Mt. 9:38). Take on prayer for vocations as your personal effort to increase the number of priests, sisters, brothers, and lay ministers.

LISTEN & ANSWER HIS CALL

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 6-12 is an annual week-long celebration in the United States dedicated to promote, encourage, and pray for vocations. A vocation is a specific call from God indicating what He wants of your life, and how He wants you to express your love to Him. Our first vocation is to become saints by living faithful and holy lives. God also gives us a secondary vocation in the form of priesthood, religious life, or marriage. In order to hear and accept God's call (vocation), one must discern with God. Discernment begins with prayer. During this week, please devote some time to pray for and encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life.

EVERYONE HAS A DIVINE VOCATION

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." —Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

Prayer of the Week

PRAYER FOR VOCATION DISCERNMENT

Lord Jesus, you said to your disciples, "I am the way, the truth and the life." Give young people the gift of discernment, to find their way and embrace their true vocation, the life for which you have created them.

In all that lies before them, help them discern a life that is pleasing to you, whether to Christian marriage, to the priesthood, or the consecrated religious life.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire them. Grant them the grace to embrace a life of joyful service. Fulfill their desires to make a generous gift of themselves to others, after your example. Give them the loving support of family and friends as they prayerfully discern their vocation in this life.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen. -Joseph G. Hanefeldt, Bishop of Grand Island

Baptism preparation is offered 10 a.m. on the 2nd Saturday of every month.

The next class is November 12th. Call the church office to register.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Every believer wonders about what the experience of heaven will be like. Popular images of people walking around in white robes, becoming like angels, and reunions with those who have gone before us all tickle human imagination. Jesus never got too specific about what heaven actually looks like. But he assures us that it exists and that all are alive in God. Clinging to the traditions of our faith, we persevere through life's challenges confident that God's promise of eternal life will come to be. We are told that we shall become like God and see God as He is. As God has made us, He also loves us and sustains us. Desiring to be with God above all other desires gives us the hope that when we close our eyes in death, we will fall into the arms of the One who will gently bring us where we need to be. Knowing ahead of time what we find when we arrive changes little.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector.

After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery.

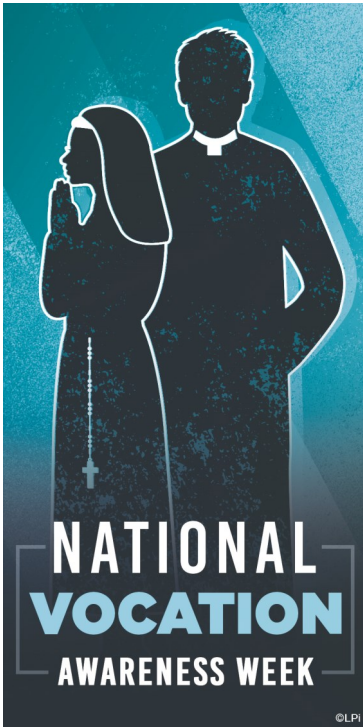

In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tours. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. The emperor Magnus Maximus became involved, ordering the execution of the heretics. Saint Martin opposed the executions and protested the emperor's involvement in Church matters. Unfortunately, the Priscillians were executed anyway.

Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.

CALLING ALL PRAYER WARRIORS

Nothing has the power to transform like the Holy Spirit, and we are praying for a transformational strategic planning process for Kearney Catholic! Over a hundred Kearney Catholic supporters have spent time and energy over the last six months preparing for November 12th, when a group of 50+ dedicated constituents will be led by our consultants Partners In Mission to write a 5-year Strategic Plan for Kearney Catholic. Along with those committed to writing the plan, we are inviting you to pray for us on that day that the Holy Spirit guides us through this process and leads us to a plan that will transform the lives of all those involved with Kearney Catholic. We are asking that fourteen people sign up to spend an hour in prayer at the Chapel of the Beloved Disciples at KCHS. If you are unavailable, set a reminder on your phone between 8am-3pm on November 12th and lift the Stars up in your prayers. WHERE IS THE EUCHARIST MENTIONED IN THE BIBLE?

The Lord Jesus, on the night before he suffered on the cross, shared one last meal with his disciples. During this meal our Savior instituted the sacrament of his Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the ages and to entrust to the Church a memorial of his death and resurrection. The Institution of the Eucharist is written down in the four Gospels below:

Matthew 26:26-30

Mark 14:22-26

Luke 22:14-20

John 6:22-59 \(The Bread of Life Discourse\)
