Prince of Peace Catholic Church Mission Statement

United in the sacraments as the Body of Christ, we the members of Prince of Peace Catholic Parish extend the welcoming arms of Jesus, opening the world to God's presence through works of love, hospitality, mercy and prayer.

Prince of Peace Wish List

2019 is counting down and some of you may want to reduce your income tax burden. Prince of Peace has the following special projects that are not funded in the operating budget:

Caulk Parking Lot Expansion Joints	$	17,000
Change Parking Lot Lights to LED	$	2,500
Security System	$4000--$5000
Hearing Loop	Approximately $	25,000

Catholic Community Food Pantry
Family Advent Activity Calendar

The Charities Committee and the Community Food Pantry have teamed up to offer some Advent tools to teach families about the coming of our Savior. To prepare for the Lord, we would like you and your family to use the calendar that was stuffed in the bulletin last week, to collect gifts for Jesus's birth. Please place items in a box or a sack like gifts, as if you're the Magi following the star. You can deliver your gifts to the Holy Family at the church by December 19th or wait for the 5th of January. Thank you for your generosity!

Donations to the Food Pantry can be made through the church supplied envelope or make out a check to Prince of Peace Church and mark the envelope "Catholic Community Charities".

Pastoral Visits

Please call the church office, 236-9171, to request a pastoral visit to the hospital, home or nursing home.

Because HIPPA regulations do not allow publication of the names of those hospitalized, we ask that family members call the church if a visit would be appreciated.

Prayer Concerns

Patrick Unrein, Tim Unrein, Rhonda Wadzinski (Lillian Kowalski's niece), Arlene Hoarty (Scott Hoarty's mother), Don Sluti, Ruth Schmitz, Charles Bill, James Fitzgerald, Dave Ishii (Christine Bonk's uncle), Eileen Colling (Fr. Paul's aunt), Kristi Habe (Phyllis Stittle's cousin), Taylor Grace, JoAnn Arrants, Catherine Bals, Annette Coon (Ellen Nickel's sister), Karen Ver-raneault, Bill Christen (Rose Hemmingsen's brother), Lynn Gardner, John McGuire, Matt Brass (Adell Ryan's cousin), Herb Andrews, Alexis Pacheco & Blakely Pacheco, Ken Rezac (Lori Keller's father), Georgia Vak, Bob Farquhar, Charles Wieduwilt, Lavonne Kinyon (Don Frank's mother), Carolyn O'Brien, Kevin Reinke, Steve Berry, Paul Liebig, Bailey Redwine, Doris Fitzgerald, Don Emrick, Kate Hearne, Mary Ann Gerten, and all others in need of prayer.

Notes from the Pastor

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

First Sunday of Advent will be celebrated December 1st and 2nd. This is when the church begins a new liturgical year. For the year this is likened to a mini-Lent. The first two weeks of Advent call us to remember that life is short. We need to be ready. We need to be alert, for we know not when Christ will come for us.

Advent is our time to recall that on our journey we have not always followed the path of Christ. It is a time that John the Baptist calls us to repentance.

Yet all around us it is looking a lot like Christmas! Advent is the church's season that calls us to slow down, to be attentive, and to look for the coming of the Lord; not at the end of time but here and now.

Advent is our preparation, our journey towards Christmas and for the final coming of Christ. Even though we celebrate this season every year, it is different because we are different.

When we enter the church, we can immediately see a difference. The liturgical colors are now purple. The decorations are simple and focused on the Advent wreath. The four candles correspond to the four Sundays before Christmas. One candle is lit each Sunday until all four burn on the fourth Sunday.

The Advent wreath is made of green branches that symbolize life and hope. The candles remind us of the light of Christ. We are on a journey, a pilgrimage that is on-going. The goal of our journey is to be in paradise. Advent helps us on our journey towards remembering when the light, Jesus, came into the world. It also helps us prepare for his coming again. Here is a web site to help your family with the tradition of making an Advent wreath and praying together nightly until Christmas (<http://www.catholicculture.org/culture/liturgicalyear/prayers/view.cfm?id=16>).

Another tradition that I enjoyed as child was the opening of the Advent Calendar. If you purchase them they are usually a Christmas scene with the dates of the month hidden in the picture. When the date is found, for example the 1st of December, one opens it up and discovers a scripture passage. More expensive ones have the passage and a piece of chocolate. You may purchase them at most stores that sell greeting cards. Or you may to this web site to find one on line:

(<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-resources/advent/upload/Advent-2013-Family-Calendar.pdf>).

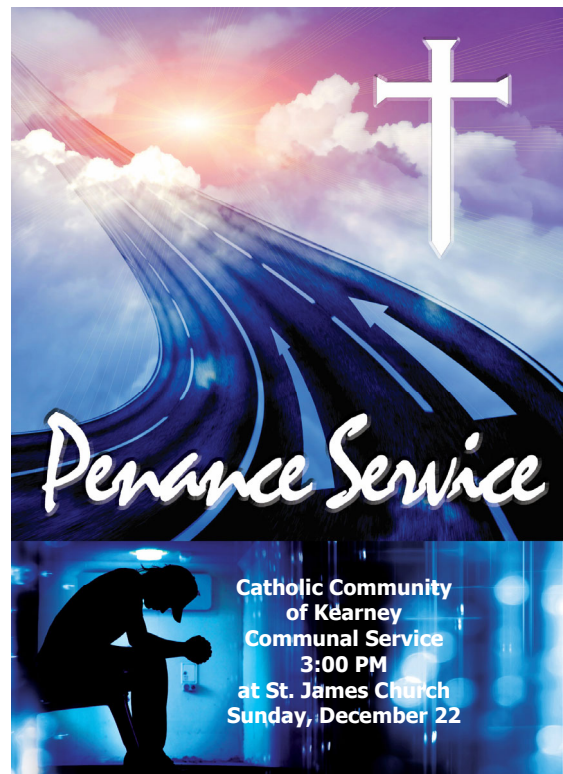

The last two weeks of Advent we focus more on the Christmas story. We remember Holy Mary responding to the Angels invitation to be the Mother of our Lord, Jesus. We remember the journey to Bethlehem, the city of Jesus' birth in a stable. We remember this Holy Family who strived to do God's will.

I invite you to embrace this time of Advent, this time of preparation. When Christmas arrives, celebrate it not only that day, but also try to keep Christmas, the twelve days of Christmas. The Christmas season concludes with the celebration of the Baptism of Jesus.

This year the Feast of the Immaculate Conception is transferred to December 9th since December 8th is the 2nd Sunday of Advent. The obligation does not transfer but, the following Masses are scheduled on December 9th:

7:30 AM at Prince of Peace
6:00 PM at St. James

This Advent, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception will be celebrated on Monday December ninth. It is replaced by the readings for the Second Sunday of Advent this year. Mary proclaims "Let it be done" as her response to God's amazing interruption and invitation.

Our day of Advent reflection will be centered around just what the "it" might be for us as we pray these holy days of Advent leading to the celebration of Mary's giving birth to the Word Made Flesh.

HOPEFUL EXPECTATION

Our liturgical year begins with the season of Advent—a time of hopeful expectation of the coming of the Lord. On the First Sunday of Advent we look forward to the end of time when we will awaken to the dawn of Christ's new day.

Today we hear Isaiah speak of a day when God's power will have brought universal peace and God's Word will have instructed all people, radiating God's "light" (teachings) into all of human society. Only when humanity walks "in the light of the LORD" (Isaiah 2:5), when all people desire to be instructed "in [God's] ways" (Isaiah 2:3), will the world be set aright and our deepest longings fulfilled. The reading from Romans calls us to "awake from sleep" for this final "day is at hand" (Romans 13:11, 12). Together this Sunday's scriptures proclaim our Christian faith that Jesus is the One who will finally come to fulfill God's plan of salvation.
